MAKING MEMORIES

MICHELLE HAWKINS

I guess the only way to really describe our friendship is to say we've been blessed. We've helped each other grow and our friendship at times has been a comedy of errors. I like the many of the laughs and tales contributed by both of us along the way. I can't say we've never argued or argued but I wish I could remember together and that we've never recovered from our hurts. All I can say is I could remember the memories of you went to me because a people's power I will keep on. I dedicate Friends are all the times but some of the best things I always feel and I'm glad to feel I've forgotten most of their names. I promise that while it's in my power I will always feel and I'm glad to feel I won't lie and say I will always feel and I'm glad to feel I won't lose each other. As the years ago "And friends are pretty sappy huh? But that's the way you feel. I dedicate Friends are secure in knowing that's the way you feel. As the years ago "And friends are Friends forever is the Lord's song I will think of you. There's Friends for ever, I hear that song but not the time. Just remember whenever, more to write but not the time. Just remember so much I love you and that will never change. (06/05/84)

Sadie Hawkins Trading Places

The annual Sadie Hawkins Dance once again gave PCHS girls the chance to take the upper hand and make the first football game and dance of the new school year a special occasion. The fun began at the pep rally after school.

Raider spirit was at its peak while cheerleaders danced to a routine with a surfing theme, and emphasized being "True to Your School." Next came the real treat, members of the Key Club did their part in trading places and dressed up with everything from pom-poms to bloomers and showed us some amusing new versions of a few old cheers. That night the fun continued. Despite the 10-6 loss at the football game, attendance at the dance which followed was high. Just before the end of the dance, students took a break and watched while the Key Club Sweetheart and her court were crowned. The night was over, but the Sadie Hawkins was definitely just the beginning of a spirit filled year.

The gym takes on a new look for the dance with colorful balloons and streamers.

The varsity cheerleaders go "surfin' U.S.A." to kick off the pep rally.

Key Club members Jimmy Lawson and Randy Soddors will do anything to show their Raider spirit.

Key Club members Iana Watkins and Leeann Styron stay on top of things while decorating for the dance.

Students get together and enjoy a slow dance at the Sadie.

Key Club vice-president Rhonda Conner is busy selling tickets at the gym entrance.

Court member Pam Sparkman shares a word of congratulations with sweetheart Beckie Brown after the coronation.

Calendar Girl Puts Ladies in the Spotlight

On the evening of October 18, 1986, 113 girls carefully prepared themselves for the evening's event- the 1986-87 Calendar Girl contest. Each contestant was judged on poise, beauty, and dress. When the last contestant exited the auditorium, each girl anxiously waited for the 28 finalists to be announced. Then, from these 28 finalists the 13 Calendar girls were chosen. Finally, to end the evening's excitement, the 1986-87 cover girl, Ms. Beckie Brown, was crowned by Ms. Becky Lewis, the 1985-86 cover girl.

Thirty seven young men contested for the title of Mr. Leggz 1987 in another successful contest sponsored by the Lionettes. The money raised by each contestant was donated to the school to be used to purchase a new and much needed computer for the English department. The remainder of the money was utilized in various other beneficial ways. The 1986 Mr. Leggz, Tod Jeffers, ended the competition by crowning Pete D'Alessio as Mr. Leggz 1987. Let's hear it for the boys!

Nightlife

Appealing to PCHS Students

PCHS students' nighttime activities varied greatly. Some students spent their evenings at home, while others found excitement. Such as the weekly football games. Many students looked forward to the nighttime events in hopes of fun and pleasure or simply relaxation.

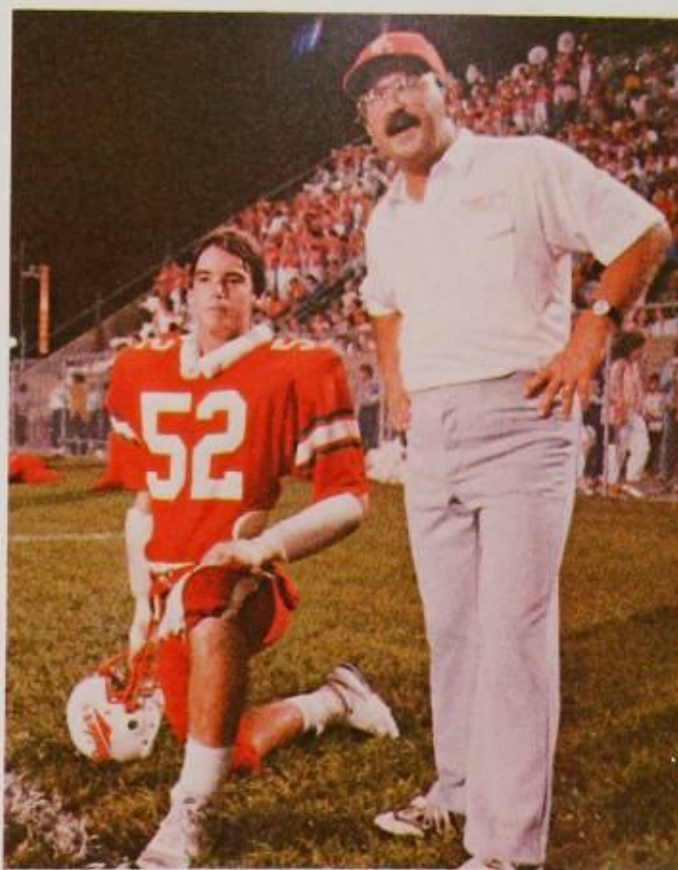

Wanda Nesbitt spends her "nightlife" catching the latest scoop.

Casandra Claridge's spare time is usually spent working at Eckerd's.

Lionette's Joanne Hodgkins, Cindy Wilson, Patricia Campbell, Trina Lawrence, and Shaun Hodge work on a sign for the football game.

Coach Dan Yaw and linebacker John Allen concentrate on the final moments of a Raider game.

JV Cheerleaders Kari Fussell, Robyn Simmons, and Trista Sheppard spend many nights cheering the Raiders to victory.

Are a Necessity for PCHS Students

Preparing for a big Gator game, Cindi Lee and Dianne Bravis choose which sweatshirts they like best.

During the school year, what do students look forward to most? Weekends of course! Weekends play an important part in the life of every high school student. For some they are a time to relax and "hang out" with friends, although others use their weekends to catch up on the school work from the previous week. As Traci Durrance said, "It doesn't matter to me how others spend their weekends, I'm just glad we have them."

Spec's is Shari Sparman's favorite place to find record albums.

Dianne Bravis is assisted by Laura Linderman while trying to decide which shirt to buy.

Occupations

Students Preparing for the Future

The students at Plant City High School showed responsibility by working in various jobs during the school year. These students have experience in a variety of working atmospheres such as fast food services, supermarkets and at retail stores.

Many students worked as a means for extra spending money and to show they could be independent. Even though the students worked part-time, their goals to work harder in school were still achieved. Having experience of working at a job during the students' high school year was pleasant.

Toni Chestine and Russell Gandy check movies out for their customers at Spec's.

Excellence on the Field

The 1986 Mr. Football award winners are Alan Black-Mr. Specialty, escorted by Stephanie Whitehurst, Willie Flemming-Mr. Defense, escorted by Dawn Wheary, and Craig Lewis-Mr. Offense, escorted by Lori Hall.

The 1986 Mr. Football finalists are Alan Black, Craig Lewis, Willie Flemming, David Taylor, Todd Bailey, Leon Simmons, Keith Gainer, Kevin Gainer. Not pictured, Zachary Reaves.

The Mighty Raiders ended the football season with a hard fought game against Winter Haven. Despite the loss, school spirit was still evident at the Mr. Football dance, sponsored by the Civinettes, which followed the game. Students showed up to enjoy the last fall dance and to see who would be awarded the Mr. Football honors. The entire football team voted on who they felt put forth that extra bit of effort and excellence for the team. Awards were given to Alan Black-Mr. Specialty, Craig Lewis-Mr. Offense, and Willie Flemming-Mr. Defense.

Spirit Week Unifies the Student Body

Spirit Week was a great start leading up to Homecoming. This year we had Fan Day, Nerd Day, Camo Day, and Spirit Day. For each day, two students were chosen as the best dressed students for that day by Student Council. They were as follows: Fan- David Taylor and Laura Astin, Nerd- Jalen Shepherd, Kim Meek and Mr. Aversa, Camo- Doug Padgett, Joe Rimes and Christa Bryant, Spirit- Tommy Sheffield and John Schofield. The majority of the student body and many faculty members participated in spirit week making it a great success.

David Taylor supports the Hurricanes on Fan Day.

Shelly Keely and Jeff Bailey go for a high fashion look on Nerd Day.

Kari Fussell gets into the swing of Camo Day.

Tommy Sheffield and John Scofield dress up as Raiders on Spirit Day.

Jimmy Lawson and Lillian Knipp show their friends a plan for an escape.

Doug Padgett pretends to be unknown.

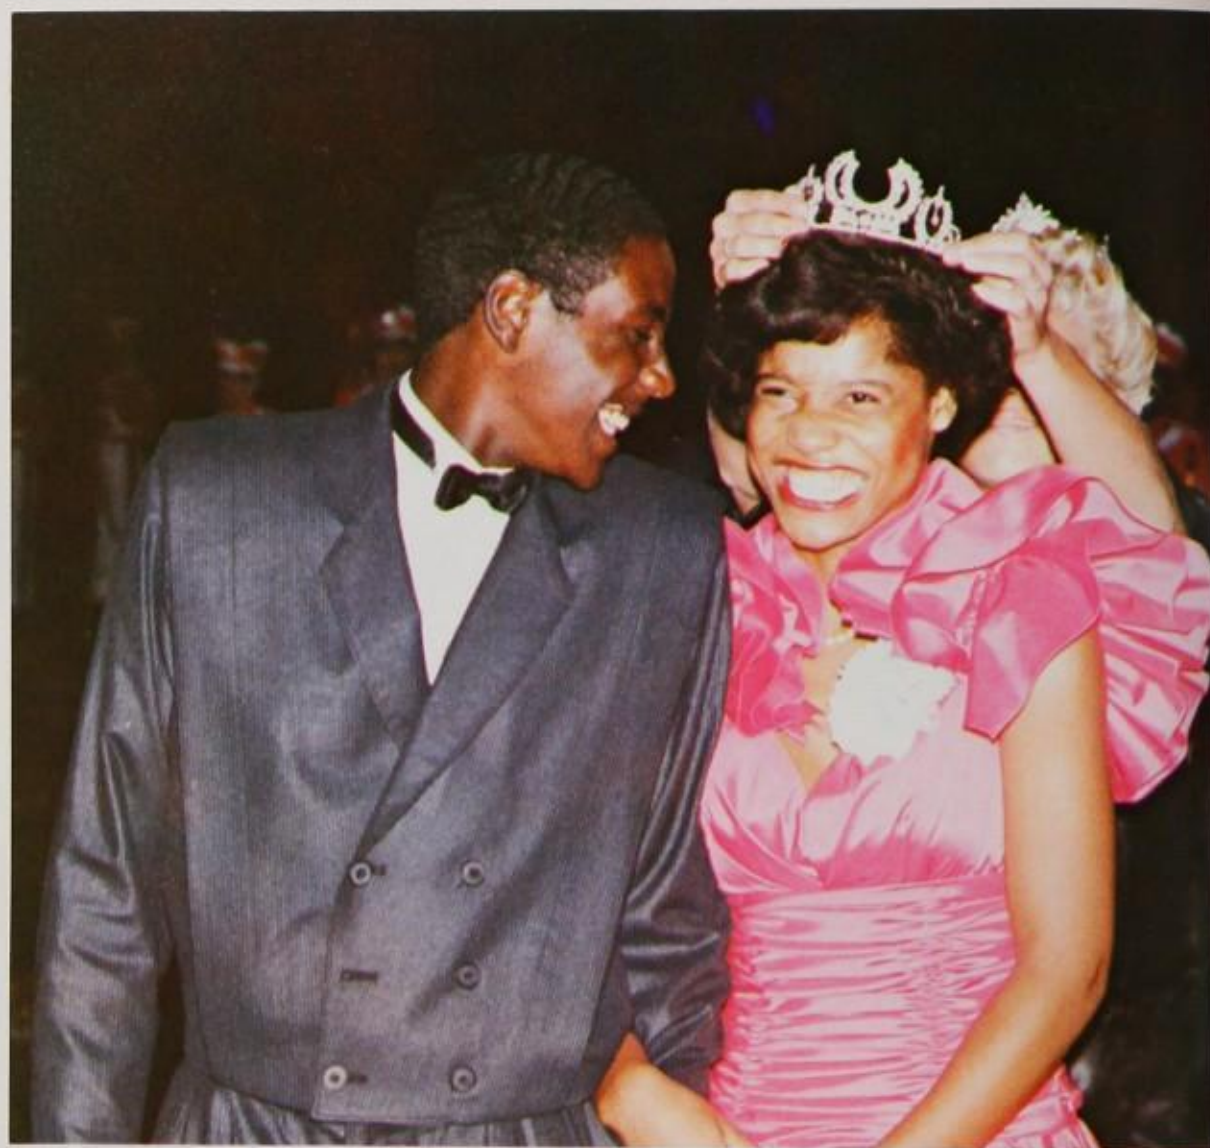

Homecoming

A Night of Anticipation

On October 16, 1987, Diet Van Triest crowned Tisha Davis the new Plant City High Homecoming Queen. The field was narrowed from forty-one girls to the seven member court from which the queen was chosen. Despite the hard-fought loss to the King Lions, the evening was enjoyed by everyone. Following the halftime activities, there was a dance in the Arthur Boring Building.

Beauty is one obvious feature of Tisha Davis, PCHS's Homecoming Queen.

An exhilarated Tisha Davis is crowned by Diet Van Triest.

Veteran's Day

Students Show Patriotism

The DCT Purple club of Plant City High School presented the Annual Veteran's Day Program on November 13, 1986. It was a special occasion in recognition and honor for the veterans of today and those of the past. Guest speaker, Rear Admiral J.W. Koenig, directed the program. The concert chorus sang patriotic songs and members of DCT Purple expressed their thoughts of what freedom means to them.

Concert Chorus sings "America the Beautiful", which was just one of many that were sung.

Naval members present the colors at the beginning of the program.

Rear Admiral J.W. Koenig delivers his speech about the veterans and freedom in America.

The Orlando Naval Training Station Concert Band plays the national anthem.

Naval officer sings "Battle Hymn of the Republic" to the students.

President Bruce Le announces the next part of the program.

Fads and Fashions

Students Stride With Style

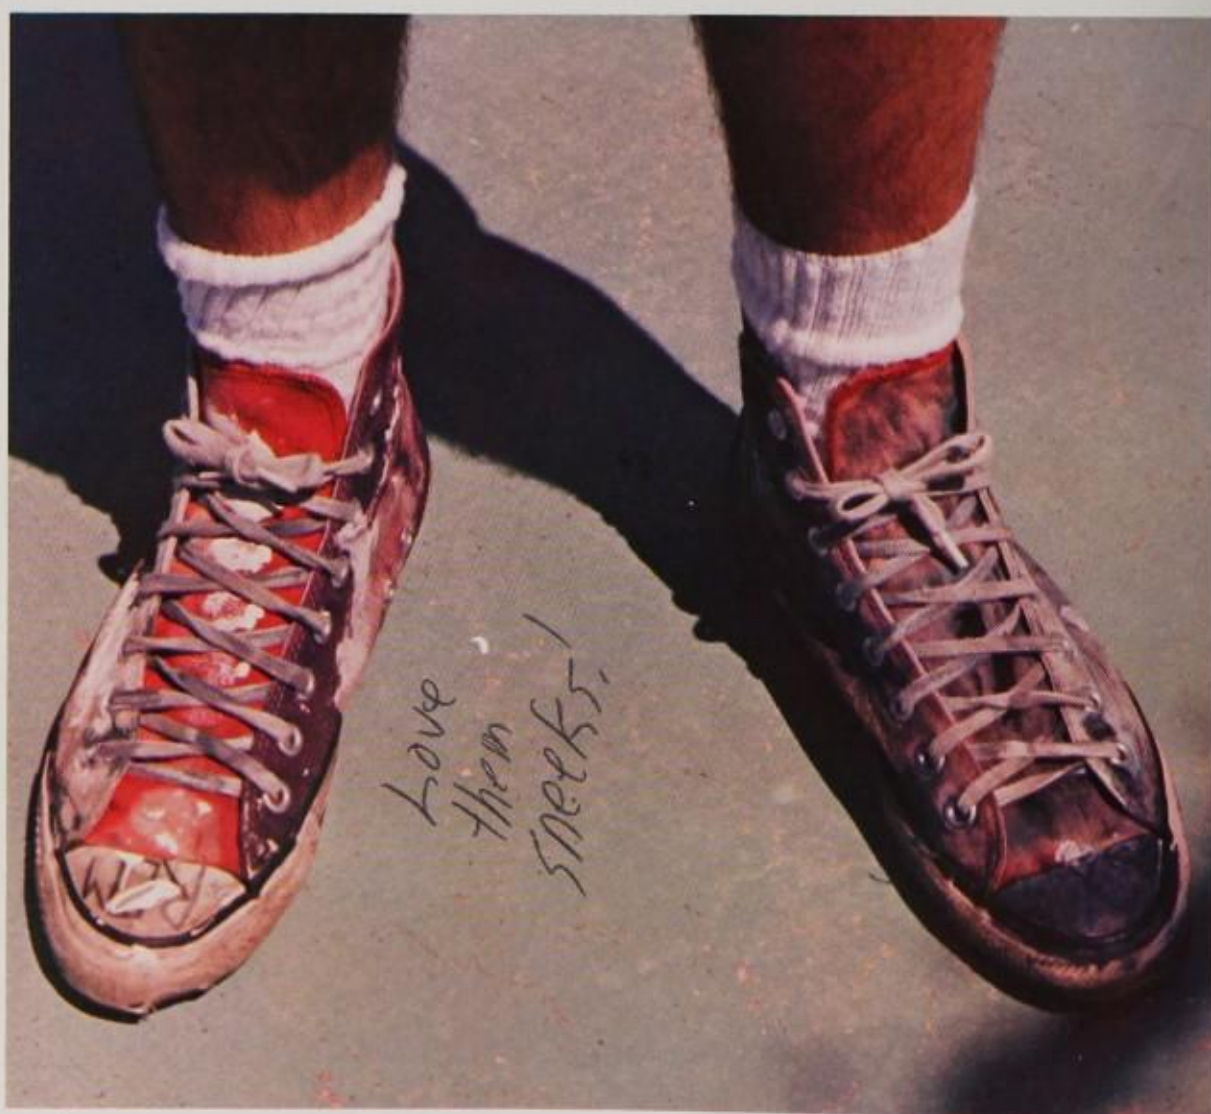

Fads and Fashions at PCHS seemed to come and go just as fast as the days of a school holiday. The changes were seen not only in clothing, but in hairstyles and hangouts as well. Denim and metallics were the big thing in the clothing department while the "Boz" haircut appealed to most guys and the mane tamer rescues the girls who can never seem to get their hair just right. Although these fads and fashions seem to come and go with the tide, they were an enjoyable asset to the PCHS student life.

Phillip Brown is one of the several baseball players who got the "Boz" look.

Beth Toler and Missy Crews share a taste for the popular Coca-Cola designs.

P.J. Brownlee makes a one-of-a-kind statement in his "personalized" high top sneakers.

Jason Davis and Tami Sprouse really get into fashionable sweats.

Todd Bailey shows he's a gator by wearing the popular t-shirt. Gator boxer shorts usually accompany the tee, but no shorts allowed in school.

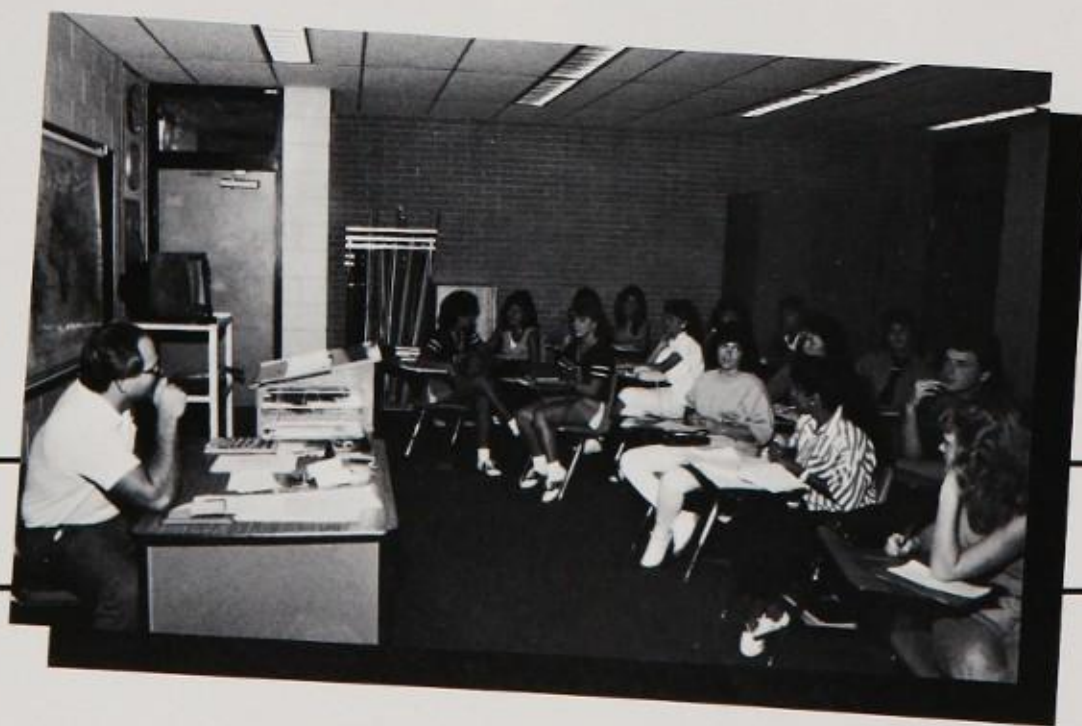

Dianne Bravis always ready for the beach, wears a Hang Ten tank top.

Paula Brock and Missy Postiglione are always on top of the latest fashions.

Our Principal, Mr. Jones

A Principal With Pride

Our Principal, Mr. James Jones, attended many programs last year. He attended the State Leadership program for Senior High School Principals. The Florida Association for School Administrators, and the National Association for Secondary School Principals in San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. Jones says that he feels the students have a more positive attitude toward their education.

The students aren't the only ones with paper work. Mr. Jones has his fair share, too.

Assistant Principals

The Faces Behind the Leadership

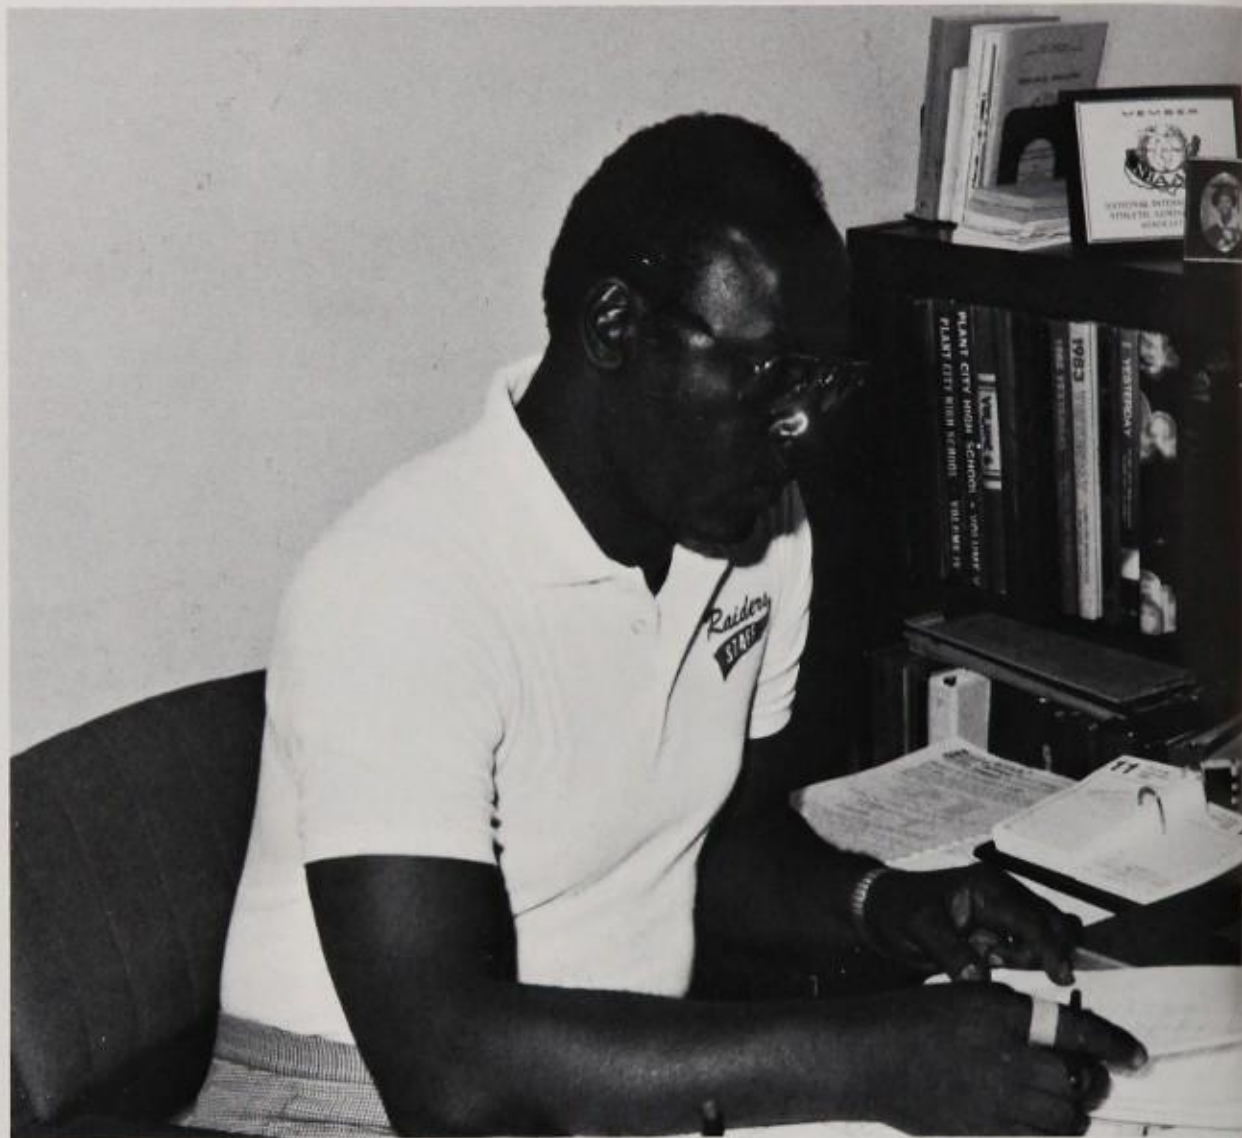

The faces behind the leadership at PCHS were with the assistant principals and administrative staff.

One of the faces was Mr. Kelly Williams. His jobs consisted of administration staff, athletic programs and supportive services and any other jobs assigned by Mr. Jones.

Mr. Dave Sanderson, another one of the faces we had, also had a number of jobs. Taking care of curriculum activities, special services and supportive services were just some of them.

Last but not least, Mr. Ralph Ruso. His main job was with the community and night school.

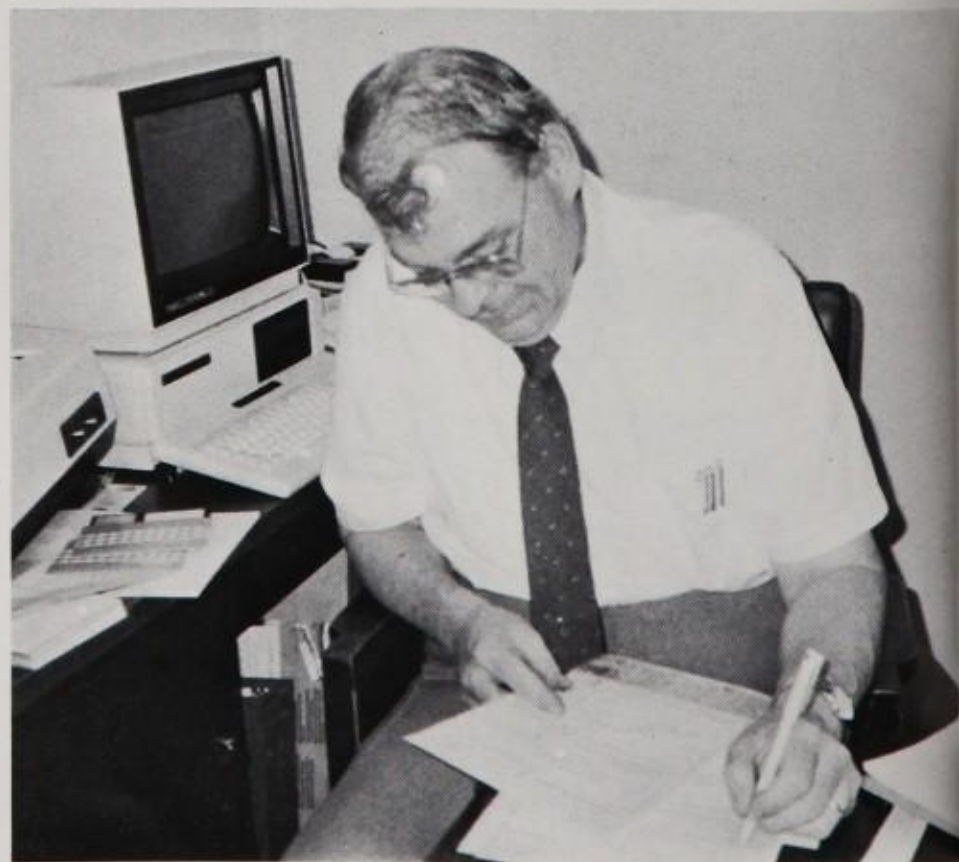

But all three of our assistant principals took care of all the students, which was an important job.

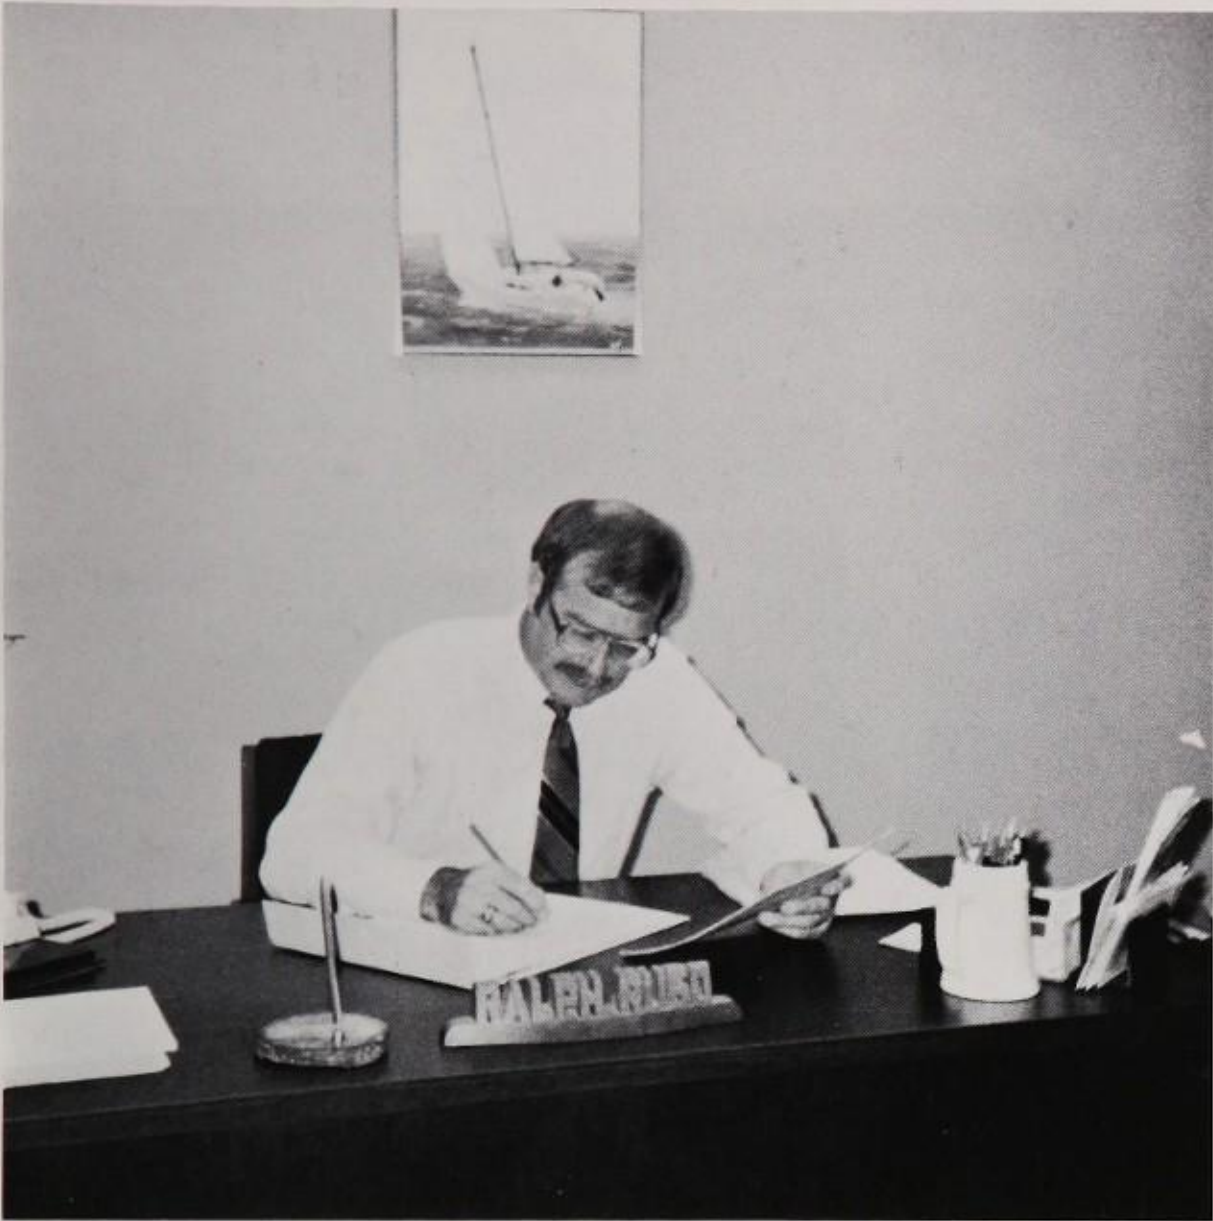

Mr. Kelly Williams proves, "if he can work with a cut finger so can you!"

Assistant Principals 2

Enforce Disciplinary Policies

Last year the title of the deans was changed to Assistant Principals. The newest assistant principal was Dr. Joan Dye. She came to Plant City High School from Mann Jr. High, where she was an assistant principal for 14 years. Dr. Dye was very pleased to be here. She said she liked the students and their willingness to be responsible for their behavior.

Mrs. Murriel Snapp began her fourth year at Plant City High School this past year. She felt that the students were "well dressed, clean cut, and well mannered for the most part." She also said that Plant City High School was "the finest school in the state."

Mr. Jack Garrison began his seventh year as an assistant principal at Plant City High School this past year. He agreed with Mrs. Snapp's assessment of the students, and he also felt that last year's students were "interested in making good grades."

Ms. Thompson, the Assistant Principal's secretary, helps to keep things running smoothly. Among her duties are answering the phone and typing the daily bulletin.

Dr. Dye works diligently on necessary paperwork.

Mr. Garrison seems to be enjoying his work.

Administrative Secretaries The Ladies Behind the Scenes

Behind the scenes of Plant City High School the administrative secretaries worked hard each day to insure the smooth operation of daily school life. Not only were these ladies responsible for their regular duties, which included everything from typing the "Daily Raider" to ordering and distributing of the caps and gowns to seniors, but they also managed to assist guests, parents, and students with whatever was needed.

When money was taken in for year-books, class rings, shirts, and fund raisers, Mrs. Velma Glaros saw to it that our finances were kept straight.

Mrs. Karen Simonds, Mr. Sander-son's secretary, had many responsibilities; among them were distributing exam materials, typing the "Daily Raider", and taking notes of the department head meetings.

The new students that came into the school this year, didn't just "pop in" to their new classes. They were placed there with the efficient work of Mrs. Peggy Hall.

Mrs. Geneva Carlton, Mr. Williams' secretary, attended to the activities calendar for clubs and helped with the athletic programs. Mrs. Jeanette Garrett had the responsibility for helping guests, parents, and students ... aside from being Mr. Jones' secretary. The Adult School secretary, Mrs. Edith Dees had many duties, among which was registering new students. She was also the night school secretary. She had many other duties as well.

Guidance Department Student Services Makes a Difference

The basic purpose of Guidance counseling was to offer each student the opportunity to learn more about himself/herself and more about his/her relationship to his environment, to assist the student in gaining self-awareness, making decisions and taking responsibility for his decisions. In line with these goals, the Guidance Department offered individual and group counseling to students and parents, assistance in course selections and registration, assistance in educational and vocational planning, in school orientation, and information and resource materials, as well as referrals to community resource people and agencies.

Mathematics

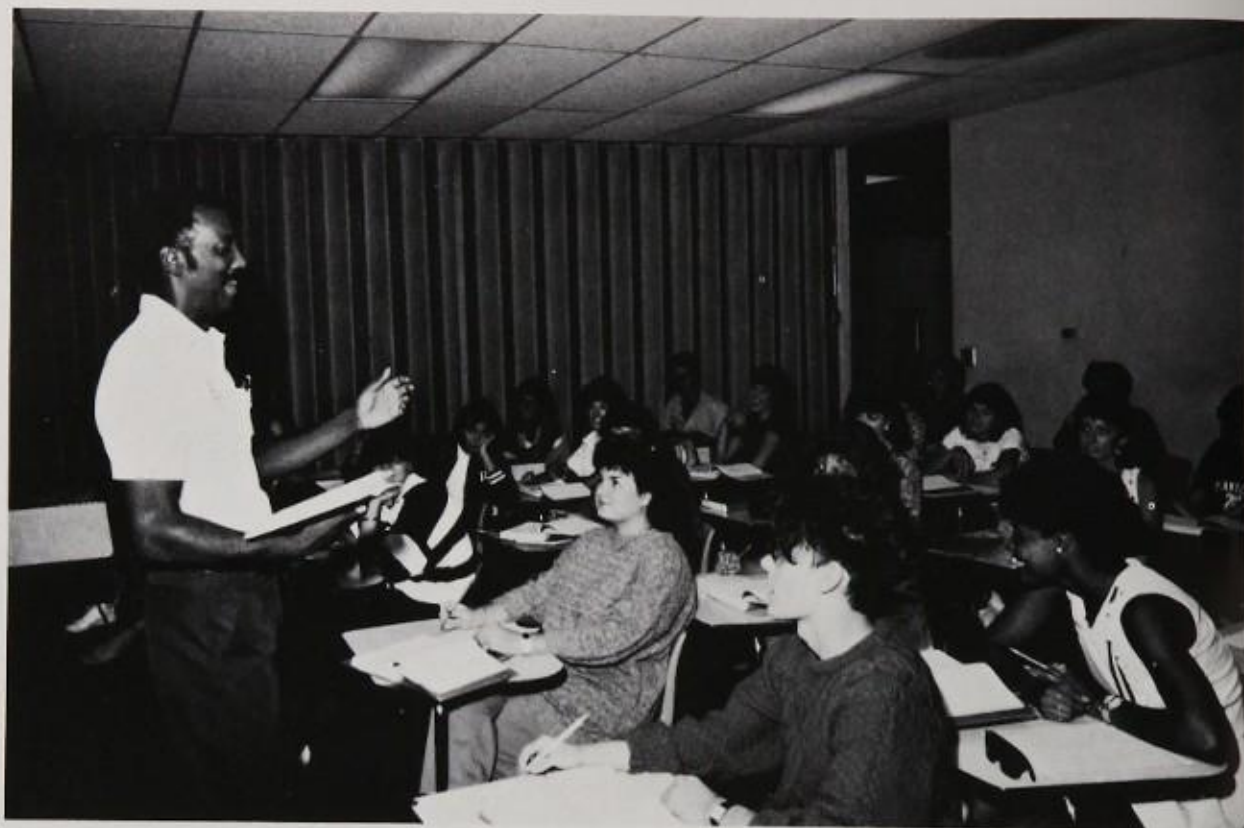

On the Move

The mathematics department added two new instructors, Dr. Randall Miller and Mr. Anthony Cochran. Dr. Miller taught computer applications while Mr. Cochran taught primarily Algebra II honors and geometry.

The mathematics department continued to make improvements in its course offerings. The basic program was expanded to include basic skills, applying basic skill, and pre-algebra. Social Studies

Large Department Grows Even Bigger

The social studies department this year emphasized providing more electives for students. Already one of the largest departments in the school, it expanded this year by adding three new teachers, Sylvia Whidden, Jim Shuff, and Cynthia Floss. Also, a new club was sponsored by the department as a whole called the Social Studies Club. Teachers Lynne Carlson and Bernita Jones were in charge. The club's main purpose was to promote a better understanding of the relationship between the government and citizens. The club also participated in numerous debates and hosted many speakers. In all, the department's purpose was to promote better citizenship throughout the community.

Discovering New Ideas

The science department opened opportunities to the future for its students by promoting experimentation, field trips, and science projects. The teachers' ultimate goal was to help students appreciate science as a way of the future by introducing them to the advancements in technology.

English Department Opens the Door for Higher Success

For the first time academically outstanding students had the opportunity to enroll in a literature program specifically for the gifted. The class this year was offered to sophomores. Writing Enhancement and a traditional curriculum were the core content of the course, but the program allowed flexibility in practicing and evaluating the curriculum. Much emphasis was put on higher level thinking skills as well.

The language arts department added several new faculty members to its staff this year. Majorie Johnson, Janet Hayhurst, Jim Beasley, Connie Cleavenger, Dennis Schaefer, Marva Weatherspoon, Larry Holcombe, and Paul Kovacs brought vitality and expertise to the curriculum.

Newly adopted textbooks were added to several levels of our program.

Electives such as drama, creative writing, mass media and publications classes allowed students to develop and pursue divergent interests. Reading resource specialist Rita Isom taught an advanced reading course for which students received a college credit and a high school credit.

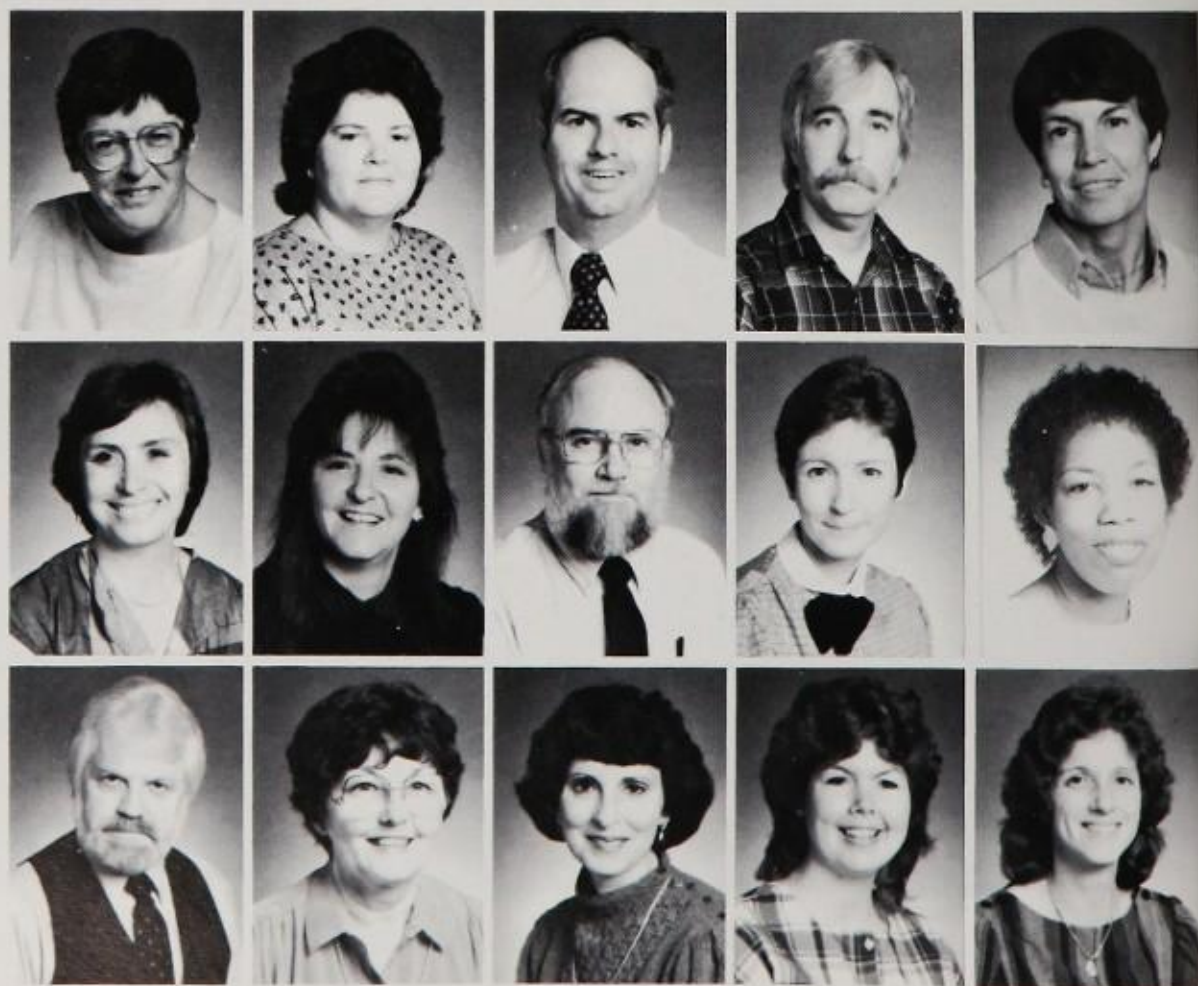

Mr. Dale Rice demonstrates film technique to Fred Huang and Steve Lennox in mass media.

Business

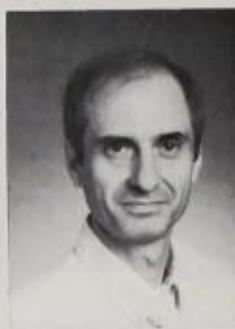

Leads to Mastery of Office Skills

The business apartment was continuously updating its curriculum and equipment in order to prepare students for our "high-tech" society. There were twelve different programs in which a student could have majored and received a completion certificate. These business courses prepared students who were entering the business world.

Adding Culture to PCHS

The humanities department participated in many community activities this past year. The art classes displayed their abilities at the National Scholastic Art Show held at Robinson's department store while other students demonstrated wheel-thrown pottery at the Hillsborough State Fair. The photography classes had their photos displayed in Tampa at the Suncoast county school building.

Concert chorus had a very full year as well. They sang in four major concerts and also performed at the Florida Vocal Association district festival.

Spanish classes recited poems and performed skits in the annual county declamation contest.

The marching band showed that they had style in their new uniforms when they rated superior at an annual marching contest.

Home Economics

Preparing for the Future

Students who took home economics did so to gain skills for living, to become good consumers, to learn to care for children, and to learn other homemaking skills. Two of the more popular classes were home and family management, and clothing production and services. One important program in home economics was Little School, where students received first hand training in child care. Every one of those classes contributed to an important part of any student's future.

Little School School Within a School

Lygeia Walker assists Roy Weeks in using paste and construction paper.

The students of Little School had a busy and productive year. Activities included visits from several different guest speakers. Among these were Officer McGruff who came to talk with students about safety, and representatives from the Tooth Ca-boose who spoke with them about personal health. A field trip to Busch Gardens completed their study on animals, and the Sheriff's Department brought their special robot to orient the students on "people in our neighborhood." Another visit of special interest was paid by their helicopter and K-9 unit.

Holiday spirit was personified as the students of the Little School participated in a Halloween parade and an Easter egg hunt. Each high school student gave of himself at Christmas by making stockings for the Little School children.

Physical Education

Education with a Style

Complementing the academic courses offered at PCHS, physical education provided opportunities for students to participate in various athletic activities, such as: football, softball, tennis, and soccer. Other alternative classes students could take included: ethnic dance, aerobics, weight training, and power volleyball.

To break the monotony of the everyday activities, the coaching staff organized various tournaments in which all the students could participate. Activities like this made it fun and exciting to compete against each other.

Raider Network

Lights, Camera, Action

The audio-visual department was expanded this year to include more specialized equipment. This was used to facilitate the Raider Network. The network expanded to 4 channels this year. Mr. Olson, who headed the network for 3 years, decided to move on to something a little bigger. He started out by adding one channel and then added a second camera. The Raider Network experienced a few technical difficulties but managed to keep all the channels working.

Promotes Recreational Reading

The Media Center had a variety of things students could choose from. Not only could they find their favorite books and information for a special report, but they could also relax and enjoy cassette tapes, filmstrips, records, magazines and newspapers. The media specialists were there to assist students in using library materials. They also had student assistants who were trained to help students.

Special Teachers with Special Students

The "Special Teachers" were the teachers who worked in the DEES programs. The teachers helped these students in the different areas within the school. The teachers helped students reach the goals set before them.

The educable handicapped program enabled each student to develop academically in accordance with his ability, to learn to get along with others, and to prepare for a vocation which was suited to his capabilities.

The physically handicapped unit was designed for those students with physical disabilities. The program placed emphasis on the students with individual progress and special needs.

The SLD program served students that have normal intelligence, but for some reason are not achieving as they should. The classes taught in SLD followed the same outline as "regular" classes, with a few modifications. The classes were much smaller than "regular" classes, so teachers could give more individual attention.

Driver Education

Learn Rules of the Road

"To take students in grades 10 through 12 and to help them cultivate proper habits and attitudes related to driving through practice, consistency, and discipline" was the goal of the driver education department according to Mr. George Spirtos. Coach Floyd Kelly and Coach Steve Longfellow were the other driver education teachers.

There were over 550 students enrolled in driver education this year. One advantage of taking driver education was that students could take their driver's test on the "range". Mr. Spirtos also had some advice for beginning drivers. He said, "Get serious and realize that positive thinking wins over negative thinking each and every time. It takes a few seconds to think things out, but an accident could take a lifetime".

Cosmetology

Education With Style

Cosmetology was a course offered at Plant City High School to give students an insight into the world of beauty. They became familiar with the steps one must take to reach the ultimate goal of success. Individually, they gained hands-on experience. They acquired the knowledge of good beauty treatment and applied this knowledge not only to get a better understanding of the concepts of beauty, but also to discover the taste of success or failure. At the end of the year this course had taught students the essential qualities to beautify themselves.

Industrial Arts

Building the Future

Metals, power mechanics, home mechanics, auto mechanics, carpentry, and drafting were the six different categories the industrial arts classes were divided into this year. The process of using and changing metals into useful things was taught in the metal shops. Power mechanics and home mechanics provided students with the knowledge of small engines and how to assemble and disassemble them. The study of automotive parts and repair were established in automobile mechanics. Drafting included students' putting their skills to work in mechanical and architectural drafting. These classes provided students with the development and knowledge of skills to aid them in everyday life as well as assisting them for a high paying job.

Agriculture

Working Together . . .

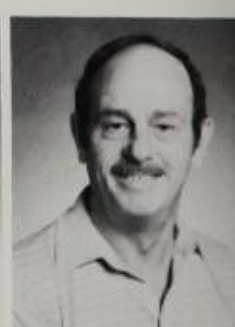

Students in the agriculture program at PCHS were among the most successful students in the school. Ag teachers worked hard and in close relation with students to help them win many district and state contests.

Mrs. Bender worked closely with the ag department's public speakers, leading them to win the extemporaneous award at district level. Mr. Clark and Mr. Davidson worked as a team to train the Parliamentary Procedure team, which won first place at district. Mr. Vaughan's students in tractor driving and operation also won district this year. Cooperative Education

Experiences the Working World

The cooperative department had three programs: Distributive Education, Diversified Cooperative Training, and work experience. There were elective programs that offered students an opportunity to experience the actual working world. This method of instruction involved an arrangement between the school and the employer to provide new experiences in learning by both in school and on-the-job instruction. There were curricular club activities that provided and promoted leadership skills, community awareness, and school spirit. These were valuable qualities of the Cooperative Education program.

Remediation Specialists and School Based Substitutes Helping Out, Filling In

Mr. James Stewart and Ms. Annette Rambert were the remediation specialists. They provided assistance to students who needed remediation or help with passing the State Assessment Test. Mr. Stewart worked with math students, while Ms. Rambert worked with English students. Since passing the test is a graduation requirement, these assistant teachers provided a valuable service.

Because of a cutback in funds, there was only one school-based substitute. She was Ms. Connie Dennison. When she wasn't in the classroom, Ms. Dennison helped out in the Assistant Principals' office or in Administration. Regarding her work Ms. Dennison said, "I like it a lot."

JROTC

Today's Cadets, Tomorrow's Leaders

The Raider JROTC (Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps) has a proud, fourteen year tradition at PCHS. As a fully accredited course at the high school level, areas of study include: hygiene and first aid, leadership and decision making, history of the United States and its military, current events in the political, economic, and military world, and public speaking. Instruction in drill, ceremonies and weekly inspections are conducted by cadets.

Mrs. Dame was honored as Florida's outstanding occupational specialist of the year.

National Honor Society

Realizing a Hope for Tomorrow

Under the advisorship of Mr. Richard Evans and Mr. Ralph Aversa, NHS sponsored a tutorial program for all Plant City High School students daily after school in the media center to aid those seeking improvement in various courses. NHS sponsored an "Academic Honors Tea" to award all recipients of academic letters and bars. Members also maintain an "Academic Hall of Fame" display cabinet in the front of the school. This year the National Honor Society recognized teachers as they sponsored the first NHS faculty appreciation breakfast in December. Positive reactions of both faculty members and students might well have made the breakfast an annual occasion. Plant City NHS members also found time to represent PCHS at the state convention held in April in Tallahassee.

National Honor Society members have emerged as leaders and are realizing a hope for tomorrow.

Mu Alpha Theta Best in the State

Mu Alpha Theta competed all year long with other schools from the state and nation. The club prepared to compete in the National Convention in Seattle, Washington. To raise money for their trip, Mu Alpha Theta sponsored the Calendar Girl Contest.

Mu Alpha Theta consisted of the Theta team which studied Algebra II and the Alpha team which studied advanced math and Calculus. In addition to these, the club had a geometry team and an Algebra I team this year.

Under the sponsorship of David Steele, the teams traveled to such places as Ft. Myers, Ft. Pierce, Tampa, Miami, and Charlotte County. Mu Alpha Theta participated in the state convention in Orlando.

This year's officers were: Lynda Johnson, president; Kirk Guger, vice-president; Jill Herrmann, treasurer; and Chrissy Mooney, secretary.

The Chess Club, sponsored by Mr. Rob Miller, was reorganized in the spring of 1986. It grew from 25 charter members to well over 50 by the fall of 1986. Members were given a chance to improve their skills by competing with each other. The club challenged other area high schools and entered in tournaments. Mr. Miller said it was an interesting year.

The Student Advisory Committtee was composed of students who represented the student body in the exchange of ideas regarding human relations with the faculty and staff of Plant City High School. Better known as SAC, the committee sponsored by Human Relations Specialist Pam Glover implemented such programs as Project Save whose primary function was to assist targeted students with social adjustment necessary to creating a harmonious and stimulating educational atmosphere. The committee also sponsored Brotherhood and Sisterhood Week during which workshops, seminars, and other events encouraging greater appreciation of diverse cultures were held. Each member brought to the committee a diversity of experience, awareness, and resources, and shared a commitment to work with other members of the school and community to achieve committee goals.

Spokesman Attends Conventions

The Spokesman staff attended three conventions this year. FSPA was the state convention. It took place in Orlando. SIPA was the regional convention that was held in South Carolina. Columbia was the national convention that was held in New York City.

The Spokesman staff were the students who created the school newspaper. This year three journalism classes were taught by Mrs. Rebecca Jones and Brian Edwards as editor-in-chief. To prepare the paper for publishing the staff had to sell ads, take pictures, write headlines, and cutlines, come up with story ideas, proofread, design pages, and paste pages. Afterwards, they had to bill businesses and sell the paper. When their work was completed, the outcome was a newspaper put out by a group of students for the student body.

The money collected from the businesses was used to publish the next issue, which cost about $1,000 dollars.

The money gathered from the people who bought the paper was used to purchase supplies, equipment, and pay registration for convention.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Promote Spirit with P.M.A. (Positive Mental Attitudes)!

In over all competition at an International Cheeleading Foundation Camp at Florida State University on August 3-6, our varsity cheerleaders were Grand Champion Finalists and qualified to go to Nationals. Dawn Wheary and Shayla Wetherington were chosen as two out of the top five most spirited cheerleaders of the day on the third day of camp, and Greg Starling was recommended by the ICF cheeleading staff to become a staffer. At camp the cheerleaders learned new cheers, chants, pyramids, partner stunts, gymnastics, and dances. It was four long full days of hard work, a lot of spirit, a time when they all got to know each other better, and a strong bond of friendship was established within the squad. They participated in dance, chant, and pyramid competitions and received the firecracker, a spirit award, along with many other ribbons of achievement. They showed Plant City their school spirit, hard work, and creativity by cheering the football and basketball teams on and leading pep rallies. The cheerleaders also sponsored the Homecoming dance and practiced 3 days a week from August to March.

Spirit glows on Connie Lariscy's face as she dances at the homecoming pep rally.

Marching Band

1986 Raider Band

From Blue Jeans to Blue Ribbons

The Plant City High School Mighty Raider Marching Band had an awesome year with over 180 members. Although this was the largest band ever, the band was still able to work together as a team. The band began to practice their halftime show even before the school year was under way. They continued to perfect the show throughout the football season under the direction of Mr. Norton and the drum majors: Tom Green, Melissa Driggers, Joseph Sullivan, and Ginger Peacock. The practice paid off when the band received a superior at FBA marching contest in November.

The band's success was shared by the auxiliary which was unique this year. For the first time, the flag corps was combined into a 37 member Dancerette squad.

Overall, the marching band, Dancerettes and Majorettes had a very successful season which can be attributed to the hard work and dedication from all.

Although the band is most remembered for marching season, they stayed busy all year with concerts and contests. Select students attended Tri-State, All-State, and Festival of Winds. All students involved in wind ensemble attended solo and ensemble contest in February. The stage band, aptly titled Strawberry Jam, also attended several special contests.

This year was one that will be remembered for the arrival of the new uniforms, an exciting halftime show, and many honors and awards that went to a well deserving and dedicated band.

Advanced Chorus

Alive With the Sound of Music

Montage and advanced chorus are the two performing choruses at Plant City High School. And perform they did! Montage performed at various concerts throughout the area. Both groups performed at the Veterans' Day assembly, Strawberry Festival, and at the Christmas concert. All of these concerts and performances considered, the two groups were very involved this year.

Chorus director David Graves leads the choruses in a song.

Drummer Chris Hogue catches the beat.

Intermediate Chorus

In Tune with the Times

Intermediate Chorus displayed a fine show of progress throughout the year. The choral director was Mr. David Graves, and the Intermediate Chorus representative was Christie Lucas. The Intermediate Chorus was made up of those students interested in learning about music in general. They participated in a few concerts such as the Christmas concert in December and the Pops concert in May.

Civinettes

Serve their School and Community

The Civinettes participated in numerous activities this year. They spent their Labor Day weekend answering telephones for the Jerry Lewis Telethon. They also sponsored the Mr. Football Dance after the final game of the season. At Christmas and Easter, the girls visited two schools with handicapped children and made special treats for them. In May, Civi's had its annual mother-daughter banquet at Red Lobster. Civi's is a branch of the Plant City Civitan Club. Both clubs serve the people in the community, especially working with the handicapped.

Octagon

Making a Difference

There were many activities planned by Octagon this year. In the spring they sponsored a volleyball tournament with the other clubs. During the Strawberry Festival, they entered a float in the Youth Parade. Octagon also completed a project for the nursing home. For an extracurricular activity, a car wash was held as a fund raiser for the club. Mr. Larry Holcombe was the club sponsor. The main event of Octagon was a spring dance in which they sponsored.

Key Club

All Keyed Up

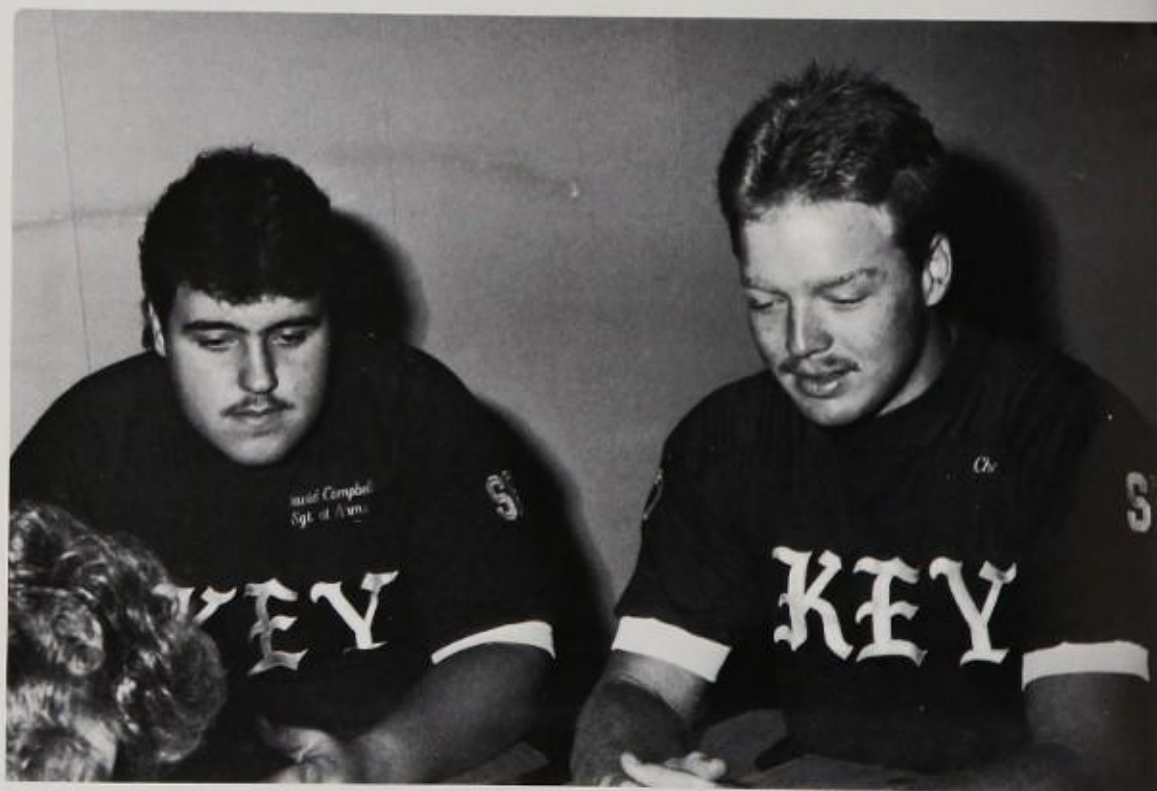

Organized, involved, and enthusiastic are words that very well may be used to describe Key Club this year. The annual Sadie Hawkins dance which Key planned and sponsored was a huge success. Key Club Sweetheart, Beckie Brown, was presented. The court consisted of Paula Brock, Beckie Brown, Penny Dubois, Connie Lariscy, and Pam Sparkman. Key Club was also able to renew the Alma Mater sign. Tammy McCloud was sponsor this year. Key Club was able to keep their "all male status" instead of joining with Keyettes to form "The Key Club."

Keyettes

Turn the Key to Society

A lot of effort and concern was put forth this year in Keyettes. Many activities took place such as sign painting and decorating the gym for the Sadie Hawkins dance. There were also activities for the community, faculty, and student body. There were a Christmas party and an Easter egg hunt for abused children. Keyettes also had a "special" event for the faculty and staff during Christmas. They sold valagrams to the students during Valentine's Day. Ms. Tammy McCloud was Keyette's sponsor.

Susie Ferrer and Melissa Stevens give it their all to decorate the gym for the Sadie Hawkins dance.

Officers: Vice-President, Denise Cortijo; Treasurer, Ginger Peacock; President, Rhonda Conner; Historian, Melinda Sistrunk.

Lionettes

Roaring to Action

Under the first year sponsorship of Mrs. Karen Bunn, the Lionettes purchased a new computer for the English department. Money for this machine came from the profits of the club's annual Mr. Leggz contest. Members expressed great school spirit by painting signs for every Mighty Raider football game and by participating in the Homecoming sign contest. In conjunction with the Plant City Lion's Club, they sold light bulbs, and the money collected was used to benefit the blind.

Optimettes

Rebuilding a Sisterhood

The Optimettes service club of Plant City High School had an outstanding and busy school year. Under the sponsorship of Ms. Brenda Watson and new co-sponsor, Ms. Marva Weatherspoon, the members of the optimettes took part in club socials, secret-pals, the Christmas can drive, and the Mr. and Miss Valentine contest.

All members, including sponsors, considered this a rebuilding year for this service club and hope that there will be many more successful years to come.

Interact

Interested in Actions of Today's Youth

The Interact club, sponsored by Mr. Glenn Johnston, was reinstated this year. The members of the club met every club day during fourth period. In October they sponsored a leadership seminar, and in February they sponsored a drug awareness program.

Interact is a worldwide organization for youths interested in service and international understanding. Three of their goals were to recognize and develop constructive leadership and personal integrity, to encourage and practice thoughtfulness of and helpfulness to others, and to create an awareness of the importance of home and family. The mother and sponsoring club of Interact was the Rotary club. Interact semi-annual reports are due twice per year to the Secretariat of Rotary International. These reports are used to evaluate existing policy, develop new policy, produce or revise literature and in general, guide the word of the secretariat related to the Interact program.

The German club proved to be a fine new addition to the wide variety of interest clubs present at PCHS. Members shared an avid interest in German heritage and culture, not to mention a fascination for the German language. Under the new sponsorship of Mr. Bill Townsley, the group worked hard to prepare skits and songs for the all county competition hosted at the Matterhorn in Tampa.

Teens for Christ

In His Service

Teens for Christ was once again one of the largest clubs at PCHS. It consisted of 200 members, who met first period on club day to worship, sing, and learn together. Several times throughout the year, guest speakers such as Horace Johnson, representative of the Gideons came to club meetings to talk to members about Christ in their lives. Some members met before school to have Bible study and fellowship.

Officers, Front: Glynnis Harrod, treasurer; R.J. Martin, chaplain. Back: Mark Capron, president; Kerri Spooner, vice president. Not pictured: Janie Feaster, secretary.

Builds Stronger Christian Athletes

One of FCA's interesting speakers was Beasley Reese, a former NFL player.

FCA members enjoy hearing various speakers on club day meetings.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes was again a strong club at PCHS. Under the leadership of Coach Weronik, Coach Bills, Coach Sytsma, Coach Pickern, Coach Yaw, and Coach Wyatt, FCA's 200 members developed into more mature and understanding athletes and students. Some FCA members participated in the game day prayer meeting for the football players during the season. Many members took part in summer retreats. The club as a whole participated in many county wide activities. Besides meeting on club day, FCA held meetings every Tuesday and Friday morning throughout the year.

Drama

Reaching for the Stars

Drama Club was for students who like to study the fine arts. They did skits and monologues and small plays. This year the Drama Club went to Daytona Beach to attend the Florida Theatre Conference. The ones that participated auditioned for scholarships.

Thespians

On Their Way to the Top

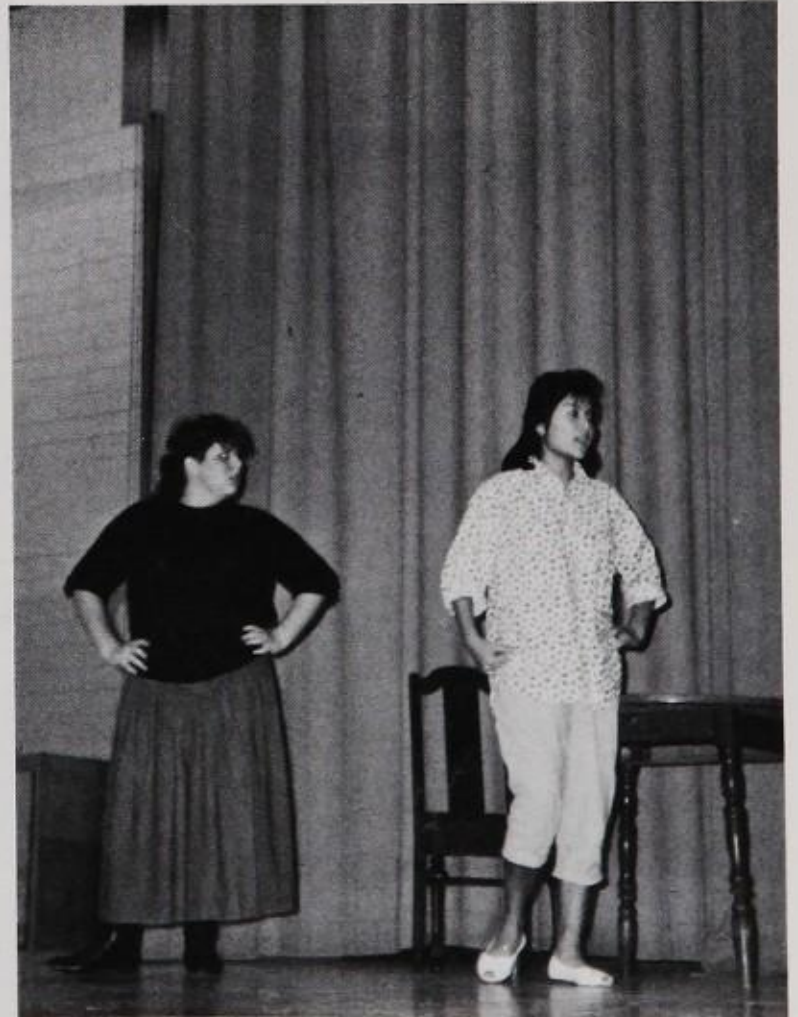

Thespians have attended and done many things this year. They attended the District 9 Thespian Competition in December in which 22 of the 75 people competed. In January they competed in the One Act Thespian competition at USF. They hosted the State Conference which 2500 students attended, which represented the entire state of Florida. It was held at the Florida Atlantic University on April 29 thru May 3. They also attended the International Thespian Festival in Muncie, Indiana. Overall, they had a very interesting year.

Deca Blue

Working Hard Toward Their Future

Deca Blue is a Distributive Education Club of America in which students come to school for zero period and get out early to work at jobs that have to do with the marketing field. They attended Deca Day at the Holiday Inn in Tampa in September to start things off. Their fund raising for the club consisted of selling ads and putting together this year's football programs. Deca Blue also gave 25 foster children a Christmas party at Springhead Community Center. On January 27, Mayor Sayde Martin presented them with an idea for a community project. They competed for a chapter activity award on February 5.

Deca Blue's annual employee-employer banquet was held at the Lone Palm Country Club in May. To motivate students to join Deca Blue they made a video to recruit new people and was shown on Raider Network.

Deca Gold Strives for Success

Deca stands for Distributive Education Clubs of America. This vocational student organization provided leadership training experiences and for reinforcing specific vocational skills. Deca Gold held many interesting activities this year including: Deca Day, held in Tampa on September 29th, the group listened to speakers from various careers lecture. Deca Gold went to Ft. Myers on October 9-11 for 2 regional leadership conferences. On November 9-11, Southern Regional was held in Washington D.C. The Deca Gold students competed against each other, for various categories such as: selling, marketing and buying, on January 29 for district competition. The winners from this competition went on to state competition. State Career Development Conference was held on March 5-8. National Deca Conference was in New Orleans, La. April 29 until May 30. Deca Gold in co-operation with DCT Orange held the special olympics in March.

DCT Orange

Citizens, Workers, Students

The club supported the Special Olympics by inviting members of Plant City's Special Olympics to their district bowling tournament as lane escorts, scorers, and buddies. Also, they hosted a Special Olympics meet in the spring. During Thanksgiving, DCT Orange, with the help of CBE, held a flea market and used the money made to purchase 37 turkeys for needy families.

The club went to J.S. Robinson Elementary during Christmas and on Valentine's Day to assist the physically impaired students in their activities. Also, the club participated in the district Walk-a-thon, which benefitted the suicide and crisis centers throughout the state. The club competed in district contest at U.S.F. and state contest in Tampa.

Through several activities and contests DCT Purple students experienced how the business world operates. Sponsored by Mrs. Betty Watkins, club members participated in such district contests as photography, job interviews, public speaking and free enterprise. They also attended workshops on these and other categories. Another project sponsored by DCT was the Veterans' Day program. Also, students organized a banquet for employers and employees. DCT club members raised funds for DCT through activities included a flea market, and an additional selling project.

Peer Club

Helping Out

Everyday the peer club members were on call for any student who wanted to talk to them. At each club meeting, peer had a program that revolved around a particular theme—new goals in January, loving and caring in February, etc. Peer club also completed some projects that helped benefit teachers and students. The November club meeting centered around exchange students Henrik Berghed and Stefan Pinsch. The peer club had the privilege of asking them questions and sampling foods along with other items from their native countries. Henrik was from Sweden and Stefan was from West Germany. The peer club also gave a plaque to the family of Shawn Hodge in memory of her friendship and membership in the peer club.

Provides Leadership Growth Opportunities

The AIASA club listens hard to learn more about industrial arts.

AIASA was a reorganized club for industrial arts students interested in gaining further knowledge of industrial arts skills and competing with other students to test this knowledge. The club, under the direction of Mr. Crumpton, went to county and state level conferences and contests to compete in parliamentary procedure, bridge building, safety poster contests, and the Industrial Bowl, which was a knowledge of skills contest.

It consisted of a hairstyle and miscellaneous task pertaining to cosmetology. Cecillia Faulk was elected regional president and Belinda Dixon was elected regional secretary, out of eight counties. ICC and Student Senate

Leaders Linking Administration and Students

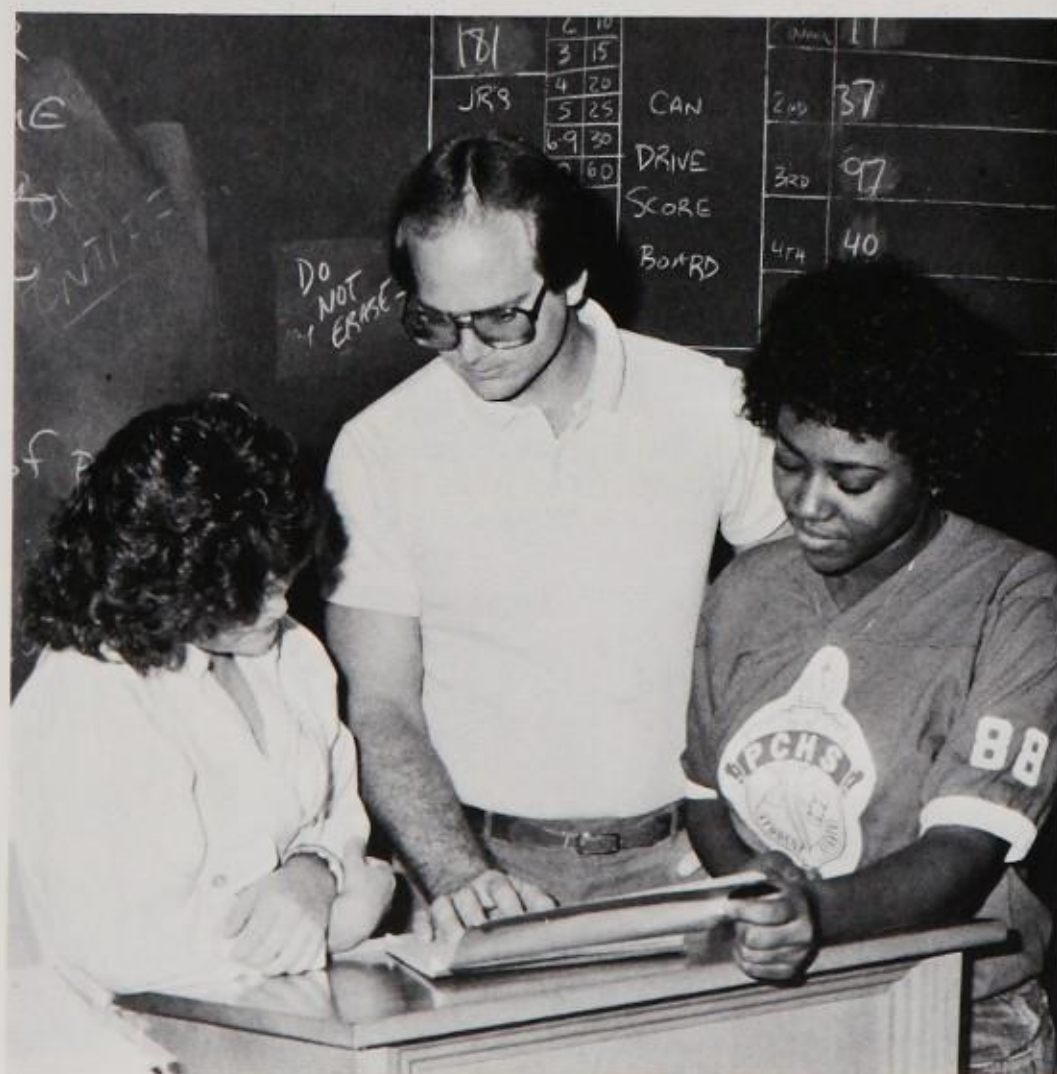

Quality leadership was the mark of this year's Student Senate and Interclub council. Members of both focused energies on serving as a conductor for communication between school administration and the student body.

The Interclub council consisted of all service and interest club presidents. The main objective of ICC was to promote school spirit and cooperation for school activities by keeping all the varying club members aware of school associated activities and PCHS organizations to work together to obtain their full potential of service to both school and community.

Student Senate members became truly involved in the governing of the student body. Their knowledge of governmental procedures aided them in conducting all school elections. During the Christmas season, the Student Senate sprang into action as they took charge of decorating the Christmas tree located in the mall and sponsored a Christmas canned food drive to help needy families. Both the Student Senate and the Interclub council were sponsored by Mr. Jon Olson.

Leaders of the Pack

Being a cheerleader was a privilege for each of the girls. All the cheerleaders had to take on a lot of responsibilities to be a leader on and off the field. The girls practiced at least three to four times a week for an hour and a half. With all the work put into cheerleading, it paid off with memories that would last forever.

Future Farmers of America

Planting for the Future

Contests, contests, contests! That's what Plant City High's FFA chapter was all about this year.

In the beginning of the year, FFA members participated in the district forestry contest where they placed first. In November, the members traveled to Missouri to attend the National FFA convention. Our chapter participated in parliamentary procedure and agricultural mechanics contests. For entertainment, Connie Lariscy and Penny Dubois clogged while at the convention. During January, Plant City High hosted the FFA district contest. Parliamentary procedure, prepared public speaking, extemporaneous public speaking, tractor driving, Ag mechanics, and farm business management were the numerous events the members competed in.

Other activities for this year included contests at the state fair and Strawberry Festival, the annual Pig in the Poke, officer cook-outs, and the spring awards banquet.

FHA/HERO

It's Electrifying

Who strives "to help youth assume active rolls in society through home economics education in the areas of personal growth, family life, vocational preparation, and community involvement?" It is the Future Homemakers of America/ Home Economics related occupations chapter, better known as FHA/HERO. This year the club held rap sessions, invited guest speakers, set up information booths, and took surveys on peer pressure and its effects. Their theme was "You Can't Be Afraid to Just Be You." A major accomplishment was the telephone hot line where teenagers could call in and talk to someone when they needed to. They also attended monthly county council meetings.

“We’re One of a Kind”

The J.G. Smith Chapter of the Future Farmers of America was the only sophomore chapter in the state. Chapter members participated in 8 to 12 contests this year. “Our team members competed and gained the necessary experience that makes our Senior Chapter so successful,” said Sponsor Donald Vaughan.

The Chapter officers generally have served as officers in a jr. high school before coming to Plant City. They attended the District VII leadership school for officers last fall and competed against other senior chapters in Hillsborough County in opening and closing ceremonies.

Social Studies Club

Learns Culture and Behavior

The Social Studies club, under the supportive direction of Ms. L.A. Carlson, Mrs. Barbara Jones, and Mrs. Bernita Jones, had a new start this year. The club was set up for students who share a common interest in social studies from past history to current events. They were responsible for many activities including the Toys for Tots drive for underprivileged children, and the establishing of the PCHS bookstore, which was their supporting fund-raiser of this year.

Writers' Club Writing Creatively

Writers' Club members enjoyed being around other students who were as interested in writing as they were. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Kallins, encouraged students to write creatively and independently. During club meetings many writing contests were announced which club members were encouraged to enter. Also, to improve writing abilities, students critiqued each others' short stories and poems. In addition, club members discussed the writing careers that are open to them in their future.

SADD

Working Together

The purpose of SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving) was to make students aware of the seriousness of drunk driving. Every club day during third period students met to discuss solutions to problems of drinking and driving. Even though it was the first year for SADD, many interested students turned out and gave their support. Since drinking and driving has become such a problem, many students agreed that SADD was a great idea. Club sponsor Coach Longfellow said that the club will expand in the future years.

Memories In The Making

Under the leadership of first-year head coach Floyd Kelly, the Raiders showed once again they had the courage, determination and stamina to be a state ranked team. The Raiders proved what the true meaning of "never say die" is. No matter how far the scoreboard showed the Raiders behind, they were always in close pursuit of their opponents.

Coach Kelly said, "We strongly believe that defense is the difference between the good football team and the great one. We like to impress on the players the fact that pride is the key to success on defense. Every player must believe that he is the toughest player in a defensive unit. Each player must be proud of the individual job he does on the opponent. He must have the burning desire to do his job first and hustle to get into pursuit and get a piece of the action somewhere else."

Vincent Richardson (34) catches his breath while waiting on the defense to take the field.

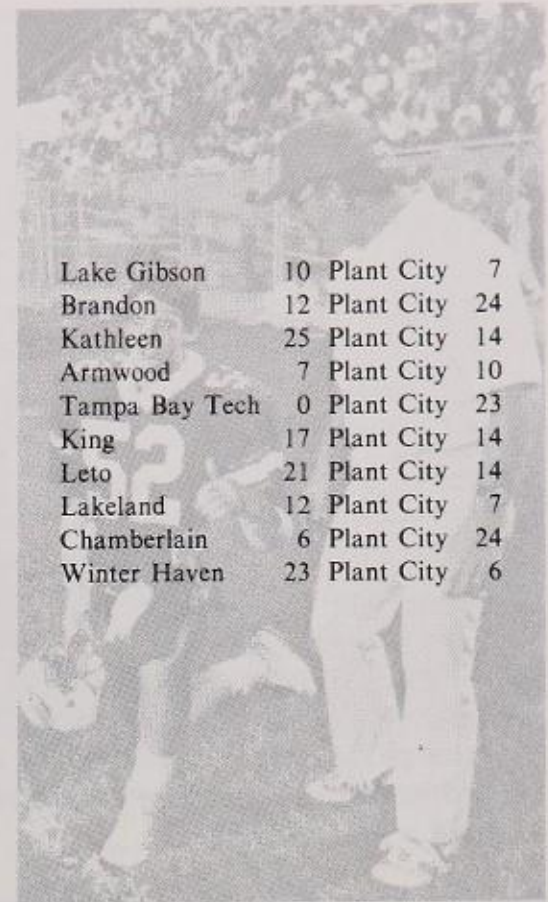

Tim Rivers (9) pulls off a fake punt for a first down against King.

David Cooper (86) stops an Eagle in midflight at the Brandon game.

Future Stars Shine Early

The 1986-87 Raiders under the new head coach Mike Smith, played with Raider pride throughout the whole season. The Raiders first showed their spirit by having a count of over 40 players the first day of practice. This count being more than ever, encouraged them greatly. With such key players as Jim Faith, Fitzgerald Light, and Jacob Chancey, the Raider sophomores defined the meaning of hardnosed and exciting football. Whether ahead (usually by a very large margin) or behind on the scoreboard, the team always won in spirit by having a great attitude.

Cross Country Team

Racing to Victory

According to the new cross country coach, Mr. Ronald Becton, the team showed that they had skill and ability this past year. Both teams, boys and girls, endured daily practices and weekly meets. The boys team, with lead runner Daniel Lash performed well by attending districts and by placing 8th out of 21 schools at a Leto invitational. Yet, all members of the team "contributed their efforts to make the team one of the best," replied Daniel Lash, with a smile.

The boys' team is anxiously waiting for the race to begin.

Swimming and Diving Team Makes a Splash!

The Raider Swimming and Diving Team was small but had excellent quality. The team was coached by Mike Mann and Chipper Bills. Coach Bills said that even though this was his first year coaching swimming, he really enjoyed and learned a lot during the season. Both coaches said they had many plans to create more interest for the next year.

Jimmy Moore, who was a junior this year, performed outstandingly. Jimmy placed third in the Western Conference meet and was also third in the county.

Plant City High School's All-American swimmer, Dianne Bravis, completed her senior year holding records in many events. As a whole, the swimming and diving team had an energetic year.

Team Ends Season on Successful Note

The girls' volleyball team had an outstanding year with the help of its four best returning players Traci Durrance, Tanya Fernandez, Lana Altizer and Keitha Hall. When the girls' volleyball team was mentioned to the fans, the first things that came to their minds were enthusiasm, agility and team work. Coach Evangeline McDonald described the winning team as "energetic, scrappy, young ladies" when referring to their toughest game, in which they defeated Armwood. This year's team was considered the best ever as the ladies gained win after win.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

A Year of Rebuilding

After the previous year's powerhouse basketball team's season ended, head coach Pete Weronik began rebuilding for the 86-87 season. Although the varsity Raiders lacked height this year, the talent was exceptional. The players learned how to play as a team and were victorious because of it. Another characteristic of the Raider team that shone was the ability to "bounce" back after hard times. A lot of stress was put on the coach and team, but the Raiders rebounded with wins. One other characteristic the Raiders held was the ability to play well without the capacity crowds. These ingredients and others are what made the Raiders a well-rounded team.

Lady Raiders on the Move

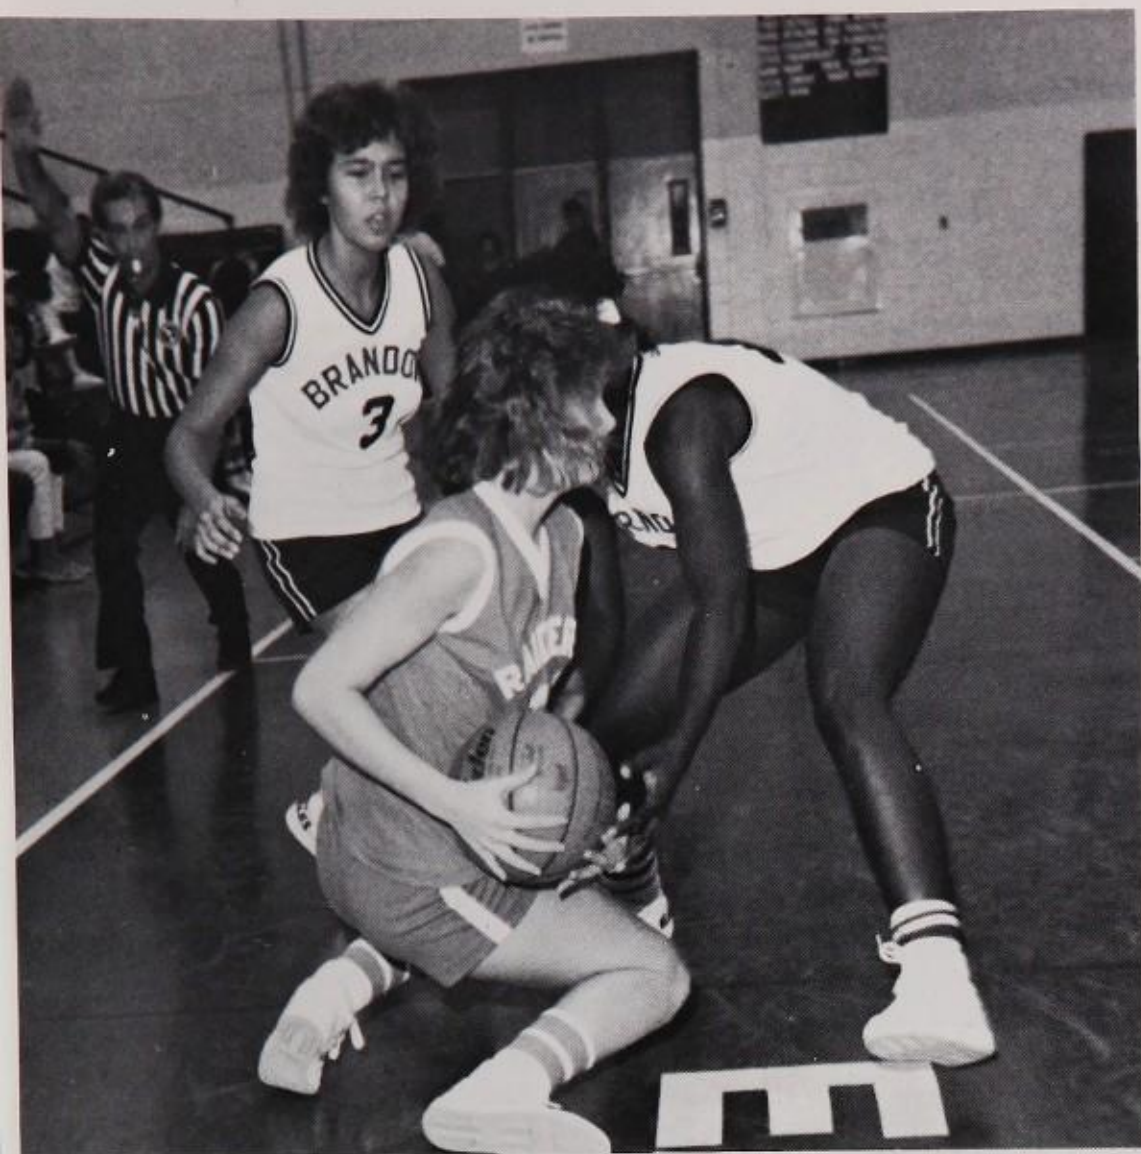

This year's girls' varsity basketball team, coached by Mrs. Carolyn Renfroe, put forth a great effort. Their daily practices allowed them to use their skills and prepared them for the Friday or Saturday night games. The team, as a whole, shared in the victories that brought a smile to each individual. Soar High to the Hoop

The boys' junior varsity basketball team, under the outstanding coaching abilities of coach Dan Pickern, showed their colors with an 11-1 season. Led by Darren Culmer, the boys had the ball bouncing in their court again this year. Their talents were developed while leadership characteristics were also brought out.

Joan Galloway looks for the perfect shot.

This year's girls' junior varsity team didn't defeat their rival, Brandon Eagles, the first game, but as the season progressed they improved in their abilities to defeat other opposing teams. Coach Evangeline McDonald said, "The girls were a little scared of taking the shots, but as the season progressed, they improved with hard work." This year's key starters were Valerie Richardson, Gena Griffis, Joan Galloway. The team overall had an excellent and exciting year.

Girls' and Boys' Track Leaders In the Field

As always, the Raider track teams were dominant in their field. Having pushed themselves to the limit, both teams were able to acquire the experience needed to perform well at their meets. The exhausting afternoon practices helped members of both teams perfect their athletic talents and in general the talents of the team. Having had top caliber runners, and depth in all positions, both coaches, Floyd Kelly and Amy Felker, were pleased with the outstanding effort of this year's teams.

Baseball Strives for State

The baseball team took on a new dimension this year in its acquisition of new head coach Mike Wyatt. Assisted by pitching coach Kenny Rodgers and assistant coach Bill Wyatt, the twenty-two player team spent many hours of intense practice and training to prepare for the challenges of the season. There was a marked emphasis on not only athletic skills and endurance, but also on camaraderie, sportsmanship, and character.

Softball

Smashes Another Home Run of a Season

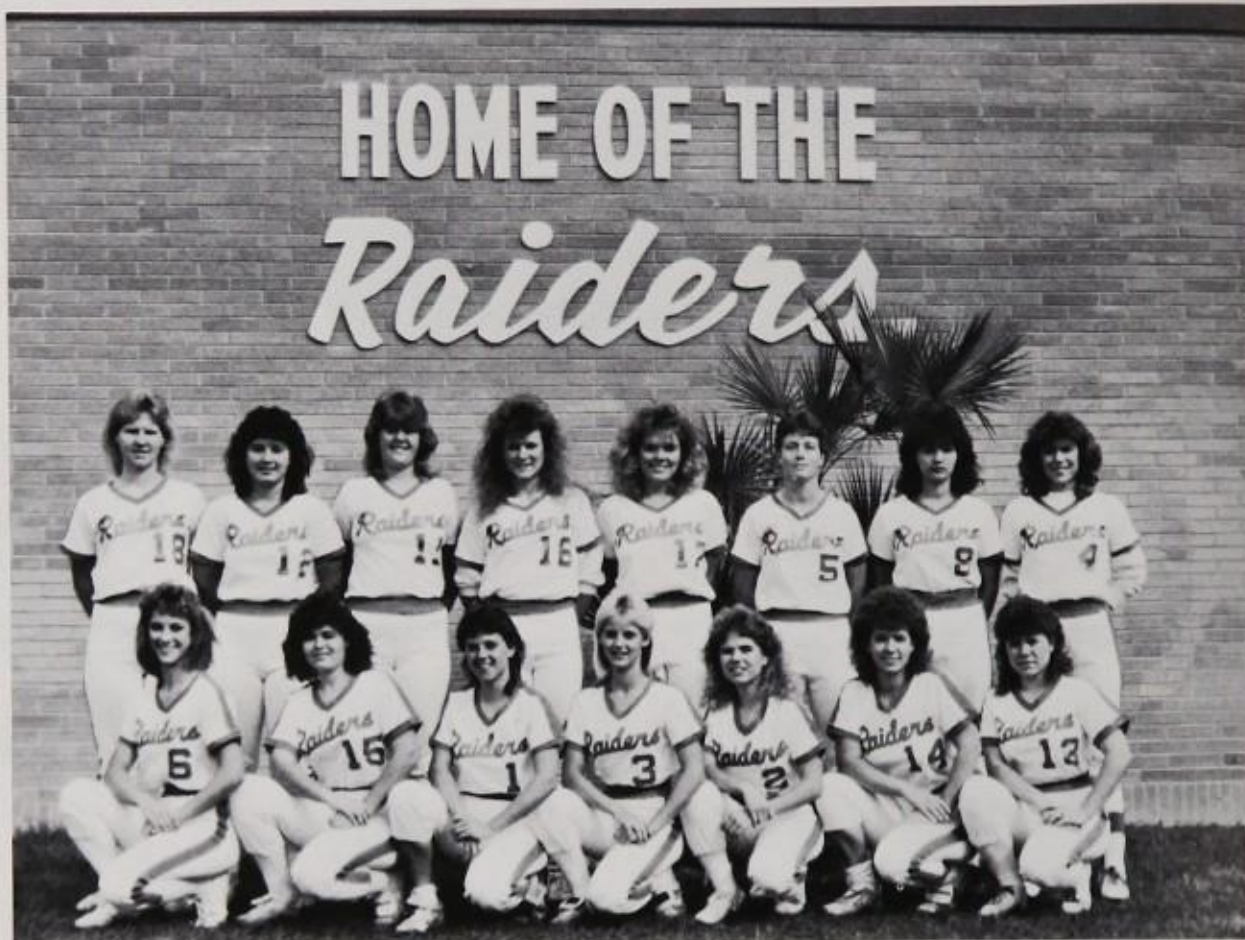

The softball team had a busy schedule this year. They practiced six days a week, putting in a lot of effort and hard work. They had nine returning players and seven newcomers to the team. Coach Chandler felt that the team's toughest competition was against Brandon, Plant, Gaither, and Leto. Also, Coach Chandler had seven eligible players for softball scholarships. Their high scoring offense and outstanding defense were what made their team superior to the others in the conference.

Seniors

Remember a Special Year

Precious moments were brought to mind as seniors looked back on their high school days. Memories of Homecoming, Grad Nite at Disney World, and the Prom filled each senior's head as graduation grew nearer.

Senior Executive Council also played a part in coordinating activities such as choosing the class motto, flower, colors, and selling records and tapes to aid in purchasing Grad Nite tickets. Graduation and baccalaureate were organized by the honor students.

Despite the added expenses of pictures, announcements, and caps and gowns, this year proved to be the most memorable of high school years.

Sophomore

Class Officers

The responsibility of the sophomore class officers was to assist the junior and senior classes with fund raisers and/or decorations for dances.

The sophomore class of 1986-87 had four class officers: Kristen Martinson, president; Matt Durrance, vice-president; Stacey Williams, secretary; Deana Bennett, treasurer. The student council was sponsored by Mr. Jon Olson.

Stacey Williams pauses to listen to the teacher's instructions.

Sophomores

Adapt to High School Environment

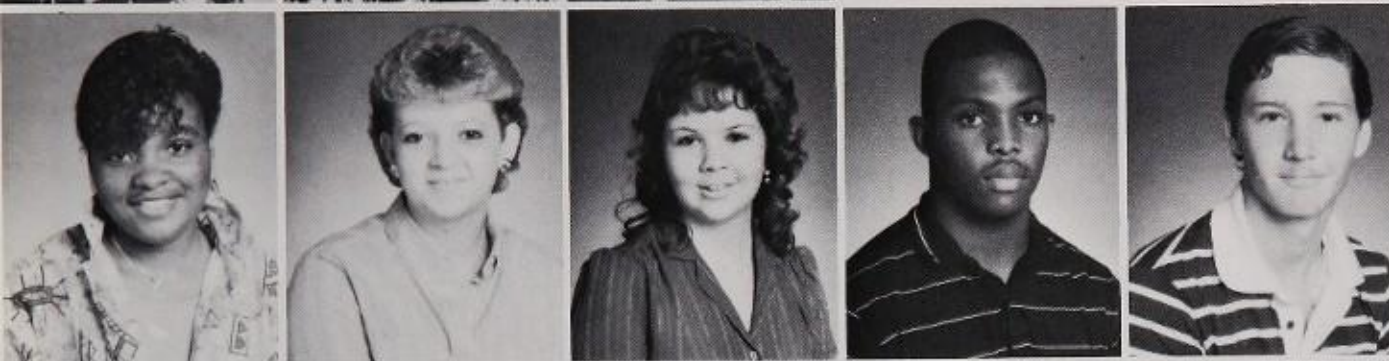

Sophomores adapted quickly to the high school environment as they settled in and began to work. They contributed greatly to our school spirit as they continued their tradition of leading in the Christmas canned food drive. Many scored quite high on the PSAT and exhibited a rich potential which they are sure to fulfill during their remaining years at PCHS.

Accomplish Much Between Classes

During the five minute passing period between classes, students accomplished a wide assortment of minor tasks. Books were exchanged at their lockers and many found time to visit with friends. In the winter months, numerous students supported the junior class candy sale by purchasing M & M's from executive council members on the way to class.

Michelle,

Well, the year's almost over — we made it! I can honestly say that it's been a Fabulous year! Just think, no more PCHS — ever, ever again. I'm really glad that we became friends this year and I hope our friendship will last forever. You truly are a wonderful person (friend) to know! I guess you're so special because you are so encouraging.

Congratulations

Whenever I was feeling down this to the year, whatever the case might have been, you was always there with a smile and a willing heart — willing to pray! I really want to thank you for everything. I want to from wish you lots of

Senior Class of 1987

the Yesterday Staff

luck in your future and also I wish ya all the and happiness your life can hold. Take care and have the Spokesman Staff

a wonderful, awesome time at South Eastern till I get there! Don't get all the guys! Save some for me! Keep Christ 1st and remain to ^{be a} witness for the Lord — You have a lot to look forward to.

P.S. See ya in 10 yrs.
— until we meet again for a concert hopefully.

Love ya,
Valencia

P.S.S. Just because we're grads don't mean we can't talk during the Summer!

SENIORS OF "87" are FABULOUS, AWESOME, ETCETRA!

Shawn Marie Hodge
August 1, 1969-December 12, 1986

"Shawn was one of my greatest friends. She was so sweet and funny. I was never down when I was with her. I will love and remember her always."-Kathy Wright.

"Shawn Hodge was a person who loved and cared for everyone. She was like a ray of sunshine in my life. I will always remember that beautiful smile on her face that brightened my darkest days. The one thing I'll miss is the way she used to make me laugh. I will hold only the best memories of Shawn in my heart forever."-April Riner

Never say good-bye,
 Never say good-bye,
 You and me and our old friends
 Hoping it would never end.
 Say good-bye,
 Never say good-bye,
 Holding on we gotta try,
 Holding on to never say good-bye.
 I Love You, Shawn.
 Jana Stemmer

On Friday, December 12, 1986, Shawn Marie Hodge, a member of Plant City High School's Class of 1987, died in a car accident. Shawn was a very active member of the Peer counselors, Lionettes, and CBE. Shawn was also President of the pep club and an active youth member of Pleasant Grove Assembly of God.

1987 Yesterday Staff Putting It All Together

Jay Ogden types in a club page on the computer.

The 1986-87 school year was very successful for the Yesterday staff. Many long and hard hours were put in both during and after school to produce the yearbook. With many new members the staff got off to a great start.

In October some of the staff members attended the District Workshop for the Florida Scholastic Press Association. This enabled them to attend classes to help them in producing the yearbook.

To aid in putting the yearbook together, two Apple IIe computers were used. In the second semester, staff members were taught how to use the computer for the following years to come.

Morris Pate, Herff Jones yearbook representative, shows his spirit for his Alma Mater.

America Accomplishes Superiority

Dennis Conner and crew won back the America's cup during the first week of February. Conner won the best of seven series 4-1. He is also known for being the only American to lose the cup in 1983, which snapped a 132-year winning streak. Photo courtesy of TIME.

Florida Elects Governor & Senator

Governor Bob Martinez checks with his director of schedules and operations Bob Fierro just a month before being elected.

Floridians elected two men into high positions this year. Senator Bob Graham, former governor, defeated Senator Paula Hawkins for a seat in Congress. A record $5 million was spent on the campaign by the two senators running.

Also, the governor's position was filled by former mayor of Tampa, Bob Martinez. Martinez became the first Hispanic governor to govern Florida. He beat out Steve Pajcic to take the place of Bob Graham. Bob Martinez was also a former schoolteacher in Hillsborough County.

Now Senator Bob Graham listens to a question put to him at the Democratic Leadership Council meeting prior to election day.

Plant City

A Rapidly Growing Community

Plant City has developed into a rapidly growing community in the past year. One area of extensive development was the Jim Redman Parkway. An area where once only woods were visible is now laden with fast food restaurants, grocery and clothing stores. Just in the past year Zayre, Ponderosa, and Burger King were new additions to the area. Many new banks were also a very visible addition to south Plant City. To meet the needs of Plant City's blooming population, new apartment buildings have sprung up. Just in this past year much growth has been seen in Plant City, and there will be much more in the years to come.

Plant City's new water tower is seen directly across from PCHS.

Burger King, along with many other food chains, is located on Jim Redman Parkway.

Centennial Place is one of the many new apartment complexes in Plant City.

Hundreds of new apartments were built in 86-87 directly across from the PCHS gym.

In 1986, Little Caesar's added a store to the Strawberry Plaza shopping center.

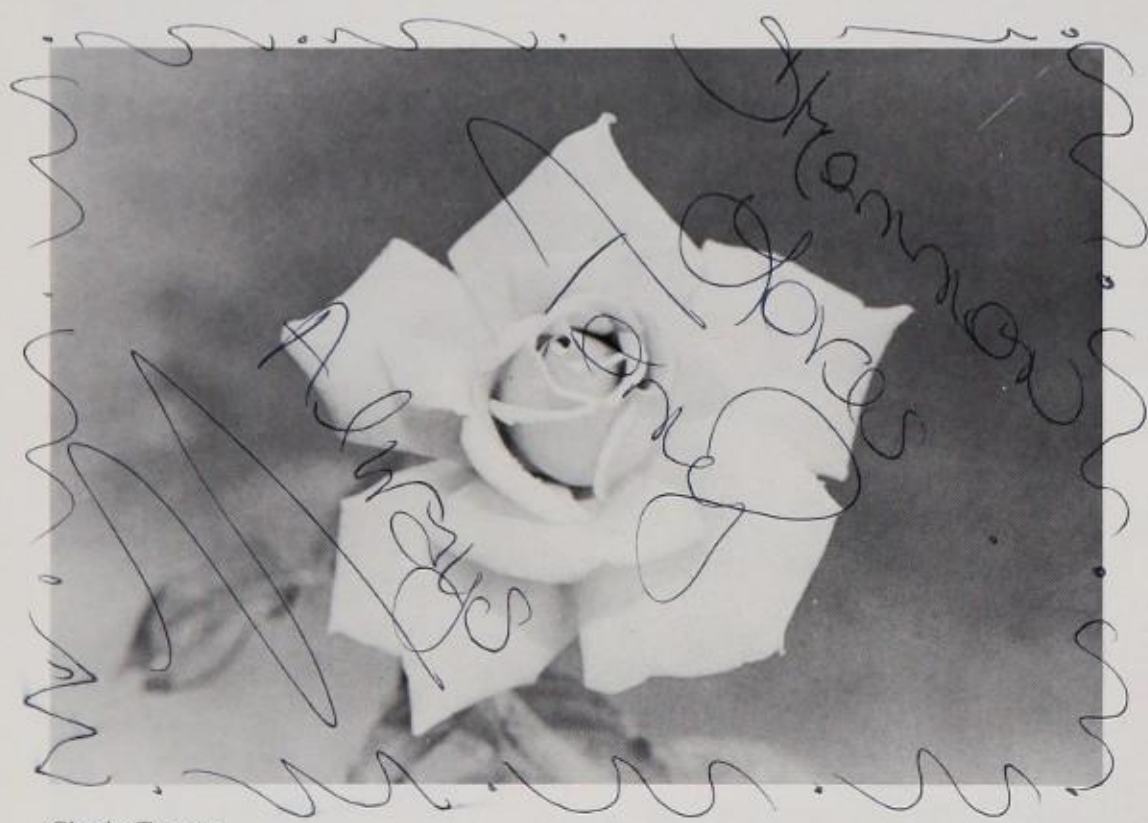

The Strawberry Plaza features such stores as Zayre's.

Polo Comes to Plant City

Polo requires tremendous stamina (especially for the horses), hand-eye coordination and riding ability.

Polo in Plant City? In a place where football, basketball, baseball, and soccer hold our attention, polo is moving in fast!

Much like soccer, the object is to get the ball between goal posts on opposing ends of the field. Each goal is worth one point. All this is done while the players are riding horseback and using a mallet to hit the ball.

Fans also have to participate in the game. During breaks between playing periods, or chukkers, everyone trots onto the field and "stomps divots", which means repairing the holes made by flying mallets and horse hooves.

Polo is played at the Walden Lake Polo and Country Club.

A player hits the ball in defense away from his goal.

Two mounted umpires consult each other after each infringement and impose a penalty if they agree. If they don't agree, they ride to the sideline to confer with the third man.

Theme- "Making Memories"

As we reflect back on the memories of the past year, mixed with the good and the bad, it was definitely a year to remember. Now, we must look to bigger and brighter goals that life is willing to offer.

The task of editing an annual is not accomplish without contributions from many helpful people. For their unselfish assistance, we would like to express our deepest appreciation to Mr. James A. Jones for saying "Yes" to so many things, to Mrs. Alexine Allen for all the support and extremely helpful advice along the way to the end product, to the Yesterday staff for all the hard work that paid off in the end. We would also like to say "Thank you, Plant City High students. Without you a yearbook would not be possible." Finally, we wish to thank all the photographers at Bryn-Alan and all those at Herff Jones. To our fellow seniors, we wish you the best of luck in all that you do. To those we leave behind, strive to be the best throughout your lives.

Sincerely,
Jeff and Jay Ogden

Well, I'm almost over. I can't wait!! But I will miss you next year. I'm glad I get to know you and Julie this year. You are great people!! I only wish we had met earlier and became better friends. But for the short time
I know you I feel real close to you!
Good luck in the future!! Stay out of trouble!
I love you

Michelle,
Even though we only
was in a class for a semester together, I feel that I ~~now~~ have known you forever. You are a very sweet person and I know you will go places in the future.
Thanks for talking to me.
Stay Sweet. Best of luck in the future.

Michelle,
 To a pretty, intelligent and christian girl.
 you have enlightened English lessons. Band has been wholesome with you the presence. We have had some differences in opinion, but we have over-came.
 I hope you fulfill your dreams and goals. May you be a success in everything you do. Keep walking in the Lord and always put your trust in God.

Michelle, great
 It's been glad I had the chance to meet you. You are a very nice and special friend. I miss you. I'm going to miss you. The future is full of possibilities.
 Good luck in the future. and remember this. "If you meet me and forget me. you have lost nothing. But if you meet Jesus Christ and forget him you have lost everything. So always keep God first, and you can't go wrong. So buy God's words and they will take you places." I will miss you very much because you are the best friend anyone can have. C/O '88

Michelle,

I just know I'm your favorite person in Study Hall. OK I'm kidding. But you are a really nice person to know and I enjoyed eavesdropping on your discussions on religion. Good luck in the future. If that picture you took of me and Valencia turns out rotten - go ahead and trash it. Stay? Good. Good luck with your future.

Michelle,

Well you got two days left. I want to tell you that I will miss you an awful lot I couldn't have made it these last two years with out you. you always brighten my days and whether you were sad, or mad, or etc you always manage to give me a smile and tell me hi. I want to wish you the best of luck in the future I will pray for you. I will ask ~~to~~ God to keep you safe and to always be by your side in case you might need someone. I will miss all the times we spent together. And remember me always. I will never forget you. I will always remember you as the girl who always made me smile.

Michelle,

well, your school years are actually over and I only have one more left. It's just amazing how time flies

when you don't know what you doing!! Though it's you, Dr. learned a lot about you, and I really think you are a really special friend. I can really see God's reflection

your life. Keep up the way you are and you will be blissed with wonderful things in the future. Bond was great, and also really frustrating but we also survived and gave these as the days passed. Please keep in touch and hold on to your dreams!!!

michelle,
 next well it is the end of the year and it is time to say good-bye. you are a sweet and considerate person. I hope that you reach all your goals in life. you helped me a lot through Spanish and I appreciate that. I am glad that we became friends this year. God bless you.

Michelle,
 I can't believe that you are going to leave me this ^{year}. I am really going to miss you. Even though I have only known you for two years it seems like a life time. I hope the outside world treats you well. Stay Sweet, and make sure that you keep in touch. And thanks for helping me out in Spanish. Have a great summer.

michelle,
 I'm glad I met you this year.
 your help in Spanish really came in handy. I really appreciate it.
 Stay as sweet as you already are!
 + Good luck in the Real World!

Michelle,
 It has really been nice knowing you. I really enjoyed having you in my 6th period Business Education class. Michelle at first I did not like you. But when we started to get to know each other better, I did not like you any more. I really like you. Michelle you are a very nice girl. And I wish you all of the luck in the world.

Michelle,
 meeting you has been one of the best highlights of my senior year. We both know that changing schools can be rough, especially in my senior year, but knowing you has made the change much easier to adapt to. Your smile has lit up my mornings even since the first day I saw you.
 The best part of it was that I got to know you better. This and the best part of it was that I got to know you better. This summer I hope to see more of you (How about that dive class?)
 part, you will always have a special place in my heart, and with that, I shall not ever forget you. I can only hope and pray that our paths shall meet again. I'd really hate to lose you.
 You really made me think of some of the things I do. I've given a second look, and now I'm back on track. The right track. Thanks for being there when I needed you. You're always had a warm heart and a soft shoulder that was always ready. Don't ever change, you're perfect just the way you are.
 well, (what else is there to say?) take care always and keep in touch as best as you can (or I'll find you, and we will fight and I will win!). Best of luck always.

Michelle,

Hey sweetie! I'm so glad that you and I became friends in homeroom. I had someone to talk to and someone that really listened to me and tried to help me through some of my toughest time. THANKS! You're the greatest of friends.

I wish you all the luck in the world to achieve your highest goals (and lowest).
